

Moira Craig & Carolyn Robson have kept the music alive, concentrating on the native songs of Scotland and Northumbria. Moira is from East Kilbride, where music and singing was at the heart of family life. She is recognized for her superb interpretations of traditional songs, winning Sidmouth International Folk Festival's

'Sidmouth Singer of the Year' award. Carolyn Robson has long been a professional singer and musician specializing in traditional folk song and dance. She is widely recognized as one of the country's finest female singers. This pair could charm the birds from the trees, and will enchant the music lovers for this weekend.

Chris Koldewey is a teacher of children, a singer of old songs, sailor of old square-rigged wooden ships, and man of Chanteys at Mystic Seaport Museum. Chris primarily performs US and British traditional music, and he is attracted to the stories behind many of the songs he sings. He has played in concerts and festivals in both the US and the UK, and has led workshops dealing with a variety of traditional music forms. Chris can accompany himself on Guitar, Banjo, Fiddle, Concertina.. Chris will be the caller for our Saturday dance, with the Pinewoods Pickup Band playing. website: chriskoldewey.com

Jake Blount, award-winning banjoist, fiddler, singer and scholar, is half of the internationally touring duo Tui and a 2020 Strathmore Artist in Residence. He studied with masters of old-time music, including Bruce Molsky, Judy Hyman (of the Horse Flies), and Rhiannon Giddens and Hubby Jenkins (of the Carolina Chocolate Drops). Jake specializes in the music of Black and Native American communities in the southeastern U.S. www.jakeblount.com

Ethan Hawkins: Earthy melodies and fiery rhythmic touch holds Ethan Hawkins as one of the most well rounded guitarists in the Appalachian Roots scene today. Hailing from the heart of the Shenandoah Valley, the young guitarist is a quarter of the band Corner House, an internationally touring quartet, as well as securing supporting roles with Twisted Pine, Bruce Molsky, and most recently Jake Blount.

ABOUT THE FALL WEEKEND

From dinner on Friday night to lunch on Sunday, expect a weekend full of music, camaraderie, and relaxation. After dinner on Friday, we will Meet the Staff, when each staff members does a brief show-and-tell about their workshops. Then we'll play Themes from a Hat, followed by late-night jamming and singing (with snacks and coffee). Plus a Silent Auction to benefit our scholarship funds.

The weekend offers a variety of workshops, a dance, a Camper Concert, (all attendees are invited to perform), and an evening concert, with late-night jamming and singing.

The hotel and the area offer plenty of options for hiking, swimming in the heated indoor pool, indulging in the spa (extra charges), or just lying about and relaxing.
