Seaport Virtual Chantey Sing; Sunday January 3rd; 2-4pm

On the first Sunday of the month. Participants from the New York metro area, across the country, and across the Pond get together on Zoom for a session of sea songs. The South Street Seaport Museum, The New York Packet, and the Folk Music Society of New York are pleased to welcome you to this monthly Sing. Registration details: https://seaportmuseum.org/chanteysing. or call the Museum at 212-748-8600 with your email address. †

Workshop on Songs of the Irish War of Independence with Donie Carroll; Friday, January 15th, 7:30 pm

Originally hailing from Cork City and deeply rooted in the folk music of his native country, Donie Carroll is among the best known musicians on the current Irish music scene in North America. Hosted by Marie Mularczyk O'Connell and Steve Suffet; there will be plenty of opportunity for audience commentary and Q&A.

Shanty Sing Session: Sunday, January 17th; 2-4pm

We co-sponsor the Shanty Sing on the 3rd Sunday of the month. The William Main Doerflinger Memorial Sea Shanty Sessions at the Noble Maritime Collection (to give the official title) are on-line: streaming at: https://www.facebook.com/noblemaritime/videos; Zoom registration through eventbrite.com. And see the documentary of this event (from when it was in person): vimeo.com/250883513; password: harbortown.

A Toast For A New And Improved Year virtual Sing-Around; Friday, January 22nd; 7:30pm

Let's raise our glasses and our voices for a virtual toast to a new & improved year with a new & improved president- This party will be held on Zoom and phone on Friday, January 22nd at 7:30 PM. Join us to sing solo if you wish, or to listen and to socialize with friends. (Zoom can not handle group singing but feel free to hum or sing-along while muted). Libations will be your choice as will hor d'oeuvres. Please register at https://fmsnytoast.eventbrite.com where you can indicate your desire to sing when registering. If, as is unlikely, registration exceeds 50, there will be a waiting list and notification in the event of an opening. Cost is $5.00 - more if you can, less if you can't. You will be notified of the Zoom link when you register, as well as shortly before the event.

Looking forward to partying with you!

John McCutcheon virtual concert, Thur., Feb, 4th; 7:30pm

John is folk music's renaissance man — master instrumentalist, powerful singer-songwriter, storyteller, activist, and author. In addition to his thirty recordings (including seven Grammy nominations), he has produced over twenty albums of other artists, from traditional fiddlers to contemporary singer-songwriters to educational and documentary works. His books and instructional materials have introduced budding players to the joys of their own musicality. And his commitment to grassroots political organizations has put him on the front lines of many of the issues important to communities and workers. See flier on next page.

Ticket prices: General admission $20; Family/household $30; Student $10; Unemployed/laid off $5. Tickets: https://bit.ly/2K1l0w5

From the Editor

Eileen Pentel

Happy New Year! May this be a healthier and happier one with respect and caring for all and, of course, much music. Perhaps, after the summer at least, may we be able to see each other in person. There is one thing I will miss. Our zoom calls have made it possible to see many people from across the pond, across the city, and all over, who normally can’t visit us so easily.

For now, we can enjoy our usual virtual Sunnyside Sings, Staten Island Shanty Sing, and Seaport Chantey Sing. In addition, we have some treats—a workshop on the Irish War of Independence with Donie Carroll, and a Toast For A New and Improved Year virtual Sing-Around. Looking forward to February 4th, John McCutcheon will be in concert, virtually of course. Check them out. Of course, we also have our virtual Board meeting.

Thank you to the Board who continue to work and make sure that events still go on. We have 2 new board members this year who came on in the middle of the year, Linea Paton and Marie Mularczyk O’Connell.

Special thanks go to John Ziv and Anne Price who have served for many years on the Board and who have decided not to run again. You have both been terrific in all that you have done, and we will continue to see you at other events!

Roots & Wings: How Traditional Music is the Foundation of All My Music

Thursday, Feb. 4, 2021 7:30PM

John is folk music’s renaissance man - master instrumentalist, powerful singer-songwriter, storyteller, activist, and author; master of a dozen different traditional instruments, notably the rare and beautiful hammered dulcimer. His songwriting has been hailed by critics and singers around the globe. His thirty recordings have garnered every imaginable honor, including seven Grammy nominations.

Ballot to Elect Board Members

By the time you get this newsletter, if your membership is current, you should have received your ballots, by which we elect the board members for 2021. Unfortunately, two names were omitted from the voting block - Linnea Paton and Marie Mularczyk. Their information is on the reverse of the ballot. Please write them into the voting block! If you would like a corrected ballot with all the names, if you did not receive a ballot, or if you are a family and did not receive a ballot for each member over 18, please contact Heather, hwood50@aol.com or (646) 628 4604, and she will send you the requisite form(s). The deadline for returning ballots is Friday, January 15, 2021. Voting is important; and every vote is counted. And remember if you don't vote, you can't complain!

There are seats vacant on the board, so if you get the urge to join, please contact Clarice, our current president, at president(at)folkmusicny.org.

New Year's Newsletter Recipe

Vegan Chocolate Cake

Whisk 1 cup rice milk (or any other non-dairy milk -- soy, almond, etc)
- 1 teaspoon white vinegar
- 3/4 cup sugar
- 1/3 cup oil (I use canola, but any oil you want, lots of vegan chefs use olive oil)
- 1/2 tablespoon vanilla

Add 3/4 tsp baking soda
- 1/2 tsp baking powder
- 1/3 cup unsweetened cocoa
- 1 cup regular flour

Whisk until large lumps are gone, batter is very thin
Bake 350 degrees, 40-45 minutes in a 8 x 4 inch loaf pan
( I spray the pan with cooking spray and line it with parchment paper then spray again)

If you double the recipe it can be baked in a 9 x 13 inch pan or 2 loaf pans
