JOHN ROBERTS AND TONY BARRAND; Friday, April 16th; 8 PM ☺

British born John Roberts and Tony Barrand have performed together for 35 years. They sing English folk songs of the sea, of rural pursuits, of social and sociable situations, of industrial toil and strife, and much more, typically arranging their material thematically to better illustrate the lives and the social history of the people who made and sang the songs. John and Tony punctuate their songs with tales, monologues, and tunes, giving a more complete appreciation of the wealth, diversity, and vitality of the English folk tradition.

Two-part singing is the primary staple of their repertoire, and the stark harmonies of their well-balanced voices first brought them to the attention of the folk music community. They also draw upon a variety of instrumentation. John is a leading exponent of both Anglo and English concertina, as well as being a fine banjo and guitar player, while Tony is a skilled percussionist on drums, bones, and spoons. Once again, New York Pinewoods Folk Music Club is proud to present our long-time friends John and Tony in concert.

At the Advent Lutheran Church, Broadway at 93rd St, Manhattan. FREE to NYPFMC members; $18 general public; $15 CD*NY members; $10 seniors and full-time students; $6 children under 12. For info: 1-718-549-1344 (after 11 AM.)

She lived in Scotland for 28 years, and traveled extensively throughout the USA and Canada, performing and participating in workshops and summer music schools. As she did, Sara became very aware of how easy it is for people to become insular in their appreciation of music, and how important it is for people to see that as songs traveled across the Atlantic they became part of the American culture. Her passionate interest is to maintain and strengthen the links between Celtic and American culture. At Joy Bennett’s, 111-39 76 Road, Forest Hills (Queens); dog in residence. Remember, member’s rates are only good until May 9th. Don’t forget to apply for scholarship positions as well.

Thank you to last month’s newsletter mailers: Isabel Goldstein, Suzanne Gottlieb, Brenda Pena, Anne Price, and Don Wade who also delivered the pages from the printer. Won’t you join us on Tuesday, April 27th and help mail out the next newsletter? (See page 3 for details.)

The Club would like to experiment with electronic delivery of the newsletter for those who are interested. We are hoping that this could save the club a substantial amount of money. The advantage to you is that you would be able to download the complete newsletter, in pdf format, at least a week earlier than you would get it by mail. If you are interested in this option, please send e-mail to Joy Bennett: <joybennett@att.net>.

EISTEDDFOD—NY

Hold the Dates
August 13-15, 2004

We are happy to announce that we will again be holding the Eisteddfod-NY at Brooklyn Polytech in Downtown Brooklyn. It was a great success last year, and we know that it will be even better this year.

Can you do anything before the festival; are you available only during the festival or only shortly before the festival? We need people to help organize the festival as well as workers at the site itself. Give us a call. We need you!!

Are you involved with an organization that could take out an ad (business card size or even a full page) in the festival program? Contact Heather Wood, 1-212-957-8386.

More Festival information will be posted on the web site as it becomes available: www.eisteddfod-ny.org
