SARA GREY HOUSE CONCERT; Friday, April 30th; 8pm

Sara Grey is an American singer, banjo player and song collector, who is immersed in the song traditions of both sides of the Atlantic. She lived in Scotland for 28 years, and traveled extensively throughout the USA and Canada, performing and participating in workshops and summer music schools. As she did, Sara became very aware of how easy it is for people to become insular in their appreciation of music, and how important it is for people to see that as songs traveled across the Atlantic they became part of the American culture. Her passionate interest is to maintain and strengthen the links between Celtic and American culture. At Joy Bennett’s, 111-39 76 Road, Forest Hills (Queens); dog in residence. Seating is somewhat limited, reservations suggested: 1-718-575-1906.

glish, Scottish, and Irish ballads that came over with her ancestors in the late 1700's. Sheila learned these ballads from her relatives, primarily from her great-aunt, Dellie Chandler Norton. She also grew up listening to great mountain storytellers. Stories from them, and about them, and her own growing up years in the little community of Sodom, NC, form the nucleus of her repertoire. A gifted and talented performer on the 5-string banjo, Sheila Kay Adams captivates audiences with her clawhammer style picking, her singing, and her stories. Sheila was the singing coach on the film Songcatcher and most of the ballads sung are her versions. She has made 5 albums of Appalachian music and written a book about her childhood growing up.

Music and Stories of the Southern Appalachian Mountains

Sheila Kay Adams
Seventh Generation traditional ballad singer, storyteller, musician, and author

In the hands of a truly inspired ballad singer, the words to a ballad can be made every bit as riveting as the stories that we see in living color every night - perhaps more so. And Sheila Kay Adams is an inspired ballad singer.

Bob Copper
(Robert James Copper, 6 January 1915 – 29 March 2004)

Bob Copper, patriarch of the Copper Family and one of England’s greatest traditional singers, passed away peacefully, surrounded by his family, just four days after going to Buckingham Palace to be invested with his MBE (Member of the British Empire) by Prince Charles.

The memorial ceremony was held on 17 April in Rottingdean, the small Sussex village that is home to the Coppers. It was a cold but bright morning. We gathered outside the Coach and Horses, a pub on the seafront. Two glossy black carthorses, with nodding plumes, clanking bells, and shining horse-brasses, pulled a flatbed wagon on which, surrounded by “banks of sweet primroses” and “daffy-down-dillies which we admire,” lay a small red velvet box containing Bob’s ashes. Promptly at 11:00 a.m., the cortège started off. We wended our way up the main street, pausing outside the Black Horse, where the landlord came out and raised a pint in Bob’s memory, then off to the little church of St. Margaret’s. Over three hundred people crammed the church or stood patiently outside.

Father Martin, the vicar, said a few words, and then, with reminiscence, recordings, and songs, we said our farewells to Bob. All the family was there, of course: son John, daughter Jill and her husband Jon Dudley, six grandchildren (Mark, Andy Sean, Ben, Lucy, and Tom), and great-granddaughter Ruby Daisy.

Shirley Collins spoke about being collected by Bob when he was working for the BBC back in the Fifties. Dr. Graham Clough of the Hilaire Balloc Society spoke of Bob’s love for the work of Belloc, a quintessentially Sussex writer. The Coppers sang — all the six grandchildren are now carrying on the tradition. Jeff Davis and Gerret Warner and Michael and Sharon Wildermuth gave us reminiscences and songs. Dave Arthur delivered the eulogy. Phyllis Barney of the Folk Alliance spoke about the importance of the tradition.

Perhaps few people knew of Bob’s fondness for the blues. A track by Son House was played, and Ian Anderson, editor of fRoots Magazine, introduced a tape of Bob himself singing “Going down to Brownsville.”

John Copper, who had accompanied Bob to his investiture, remarked, “Of the one hundred and six people being invested, Prince Charles only went down on his knees for one – my dad. Of course, dad was in a wheelchair …” Prince Charles had written a beautiful letter of condolence, which was read by John.

We were played out with Beethoven’s “Emperor” piano concerto, and all repaired to the local school to partake of Bob’s favorite tipple, Harvey’s bitter.

It was a wonderful, warm, and touching event. The family is bearing up as well as can be expected, although they feel the loss — as do we all. By request, no flowers, but donations to the Vaughan Williams Memorial Library at Cecil Sharp House, home of the English Folk Dance and Song Society.

-Heather Wood

Spring is finally here, and what a wonderful way to celebrate it by going on the Spring Folk Music Weekend held during the Memorial Day weekend. There are still spaces left—but don’t wait too long!! We have a great line-up—see the flyer in the center. We also have some weekend jobs available. See the top of this page.

In addition, we have many concerts and events coming up—Sara Grey, Sheila Kay Adams, a Sea Music concert with Don Sinetti, an evening of “Kipling, Songs, and Surprises” with David Kleiman, Ken Schatz, Ellen Weiss, and Heather Wood, and opportunities for you to come and sing—the Gospel & Sacred Harp Sing, the Folk Open Sing, the Chantey Sing, the Sacred Harp Sing, the Riverdale Sing and the Sunnyside Song Circle. We also have an intermediate fiddle workshop—sign up quickly for that—space is limited.

On a sadder note, Bob Copper has passed on. See page 8. Bob and his family have come to the States a number of times in the past few years. His songs and good humor have enriched us enormously. He will be missed. Condolences to his family. We hope that they will continue to come visit us and share their songs and laughter with us.

Thank you to last month’s newsletter mailers: Ruth Block, Isabel Goldstein, Suzanne Gottlieb, Brenda Pena, Anne Price, Marcus Tieman, and Don Wade who delivered the pages from the printer. Won’t you join us on Thursday, June 3rd and help mail out the next newsletter? (See page 4 for details.)
Our Traditional Music Festival:
EISTEDDFOD—NY
Hold the Dates
August 13-15, 2004

We are happy to announce that we will again be holding the Eisteddfod-NY at Brooklyn Polytech in Downtown Brooklyn. It was a great success last year, and we know that it will be even better this year.

WE NEED VOLUNTEERS! If you would like to help out in any way, call Alan Friend, 1-718-965-4074. Can you do anything before the festival; are you available only during the festival or only shortly before the festival? We need people to help organize the festival as well as workers at the site itself. Give us a call. We need you!!

Are you involved with an organization that could take out an ad (business card size or even a full page) in the festival program? Contact Heather Wood, 1-212-957-8386 <hwood50@aol.com>.

Can you put out flyers at any events, festivals, or concerts you will be at over the next few months? We’d be happy to send you a supply; contact Don Wade, 1-718-426-8555 <WadeD@ncc.edu>.

More Festival information will be posted on the web site as it becomes available: www.eisteddfod-ny.org

The Annual GottaGetGon Folk festival
May 28-30 2004 (Memorial Day Weekend)

The Pickin’ & Singin’ Gatherin’ is a folk club of families and individuals in the New York State Capital District (Albany, Schenectady, Troy, Saratoga Springs) It’s for people who like to get together to sing and/or play music (mostly folk, blues, swing, celtic) We make music ourselves and enjoy the company of others. A major activity of the PSG is an intimate, friendly folk festival, open to the public, called the GottaGetGon. This Annual Folk Music Festival is held over Memorial Day Weekend at the Saratoga County Fairgrounds in Ballston Spa NY (about 40 minutes North of Albany, NY) We invite you to join us for 2 days of scheduled concerts and workshops by excellent performers from around the USA, Canada and Great Britain. For 3 nights there is singing and jamming in the campgrounds – not just tolerated, but greatly encouraged (there are also quiet areas to camp.) The festival name “GottaGetGon” denotes our desire to leave the city and ‘get gone’ to the country for the first festival of the season. All scheduled events and much jamming is undercover (in buildings) so the weather poses no problem for us. We hope you can join in the festivities. Bring your instrument if you play one or just your warm body, and maybe your singing voice.

This year’s featured performers include: Scott Ainslie (blues); The Johnson Girls (a capella maritime singing); Sara Milonovich & Greg Anderson (Celtic and American fiddle music); Dan Duggen, Peggy Lynn and Dan Berggren (trio of Adirondack folk musicians). There is also a dance, with live music of course, and a caller. The scheduled parts are sufficient to keep one busy all day but not so heavily scheduled that they consume all your time for jamming, informal group sings, cooking/eating, and just gathering. Evenings are times for wandering among the camps joining in the music, or just listening and enjoying. The paid professional musicians jam and chat with us also, it’s part of the deal.

See our less than flashy website at: http://www.pickingandsinging.org/ (lots of photos) Festival information is at: http://www.pickingandsinging.org/GGG_festival2x.htm

2004 Gate Prices are: Adults (22yrs+) $35/weekend* $18/day Students (12-21yrs) $16/weekend* $9/day There are pre-registration discounts available. (This is a camping weekend, costs include campground space only; no food or lodging.)

Howie Eskin is the GGG Coordinator, and can be reached via e-mail at: eskin@capital.net, or phone 518/882-6809 Vicki Kelsey is the President of PSG. Her email is: vickikel@yahoo.com
