They have been enthralling audiences at East Coast venues from Upstate New York to the Georgia Sea Islands, and are much loved wherever they go. The husband and wife duo feels that "there are stories to tell, people to remember, and things that must be said." Winter Weekend of Music; Feb. 5-7, Kerhonkson, NY

In the Bleak Midwinter ...
... when the gloom and cold are getting you down, come join us at our Winter Weekend. Unstructured (except for meal times), we get together to sing, play, relax, and have fun.

The Hudson Valley Resort and Spa in Kerhonkson, NY, is about 2-1/2 hours from NYC (barring traffic). Accommodations are comfortable, food is good and plentiful (and the kitchen is very good about special dietary requirements), there is a heated indoor pool, and a spa with hot tubs (gender-segregated - sorry!). Mood and weather permitting, there is some spectacular hiking in the area. See flier in centerfold.

Evy Mayer has been dancing away. In September, Evy went on a folk dance cruise. She sent in the following interesting item: "We were 49 people on the Celebrity Silhouette, a ship that held 3,000 passengers. Our group danced for two hours every night. Our tour leaders, Yves and France Moreau taught dances and also arranged for four special trips. We visited three Italian dance groups from Rome, Sicily and Sardinia. They played traditional music, danced their traditional dances and dressed in wonderful costumes. In addition, each group arranged a delicious meal for us. The same happened in Marseille, France where a group that had been performing and touring the world for 50 years entertained and fed us." In Nice, Evy made a side trip to the Renoir Museum, the home where Renoir spent the last years of his life. "It was wonderful to see the paintings that had been painted right there and be able to look at the spot where they were painted. We happened to go there on the one day a year when a group of about 25 people came dressed in period costumes and brought period automobiles to look at." Evy has a DVD of the trip which she hopes to share on the club’s Winter Weekend.

Rita and Mark Hamburgh had a busy, fruitful year. Rita was recognized for her professional work as well as for community service. She is the senior director of the Rehabilitation Department at New York Presbyterian Hospital. The April/May issue of the hospital’s newsletter, The New York Press, printed a full-page article about Rita. When she’s not at her job, Rita is no couch potato. At the synagogue where the Hamburghs are members, she has been conducting a weekly exercise class for about 35 years. She was honored for this during an interfaith Thanksgiving service conducted by two synagogues and two churches in Washington Heights. Mark has been serving as co-chair of the Trusts and Estates Mentoring Circle for new attorneys of the New York City Bar Association since September 2014. In May 2015 he was appointed co-chair of the Estates and Trusts section of the New York County Lawyers’ Association. Mark and Rita traveled to six national parks this year (Voyageurs, Isle Royale, Great Basin, Bryce Canyon, Zion and Pinnacles) bringing their total of visits to 54 of the 59 national parks. They saw the Yankees play at Target Field in Minneapolis (the 36th major league ballpark at which Mark has seen a game). And they were at Trad-Mad week at Pinewoods Camp. They continue to enjoy their first grandchild, Charlotte, who was born in September. Last but not least, best wishes to their daughter, Michele, who was married on October 11, 2015.

If you have news to share, please contact me at 372 Central Park West, #15B, New York, NY 10025; 212-663-6309; ruthlipman(at)msn.com.

The FMSNY executive board has agreed to the American Federation of Musicians Local 1000 Fair Trade Music principles for our concert program. In essence it means that our club agrees to pay at least union scale to the performers in those concerts, including house concerts, for which we are the primary sponsor. Our agreement does not cover non-concert events such as sing-arounds and weekends, nor does it cover concerts featuring our own club members and concerts where we are a cosponsor but from which we receive no income.
