The FMSNY executive board has agreed to the American Federation of Musicians Local 1000 Fair Trade Music principles for our concert program. In essence it means that our club agrees to pay at least union scale to the performers in those concerts, including house concerts, for which we are the primary sponsor. Our agreement does not cover non-concert events such as sing-arounds and weekends, nor does it cover concerts featuring our own club members and concerts where we are a cosponsor but from which we receive no income. FOLK MUSIC WEEKEND

MAY 27 - 31
2016

SPRING
FOLK
WEEKEND

At the Hudson Valley Resort & Spa, Kerhonkson, NY, ninety miles north of New York City.

Folk Music Society of NY, Inc
NY Pinewoods Folk Music Club

More details @ www.folkmusicny.org/weekends.html

JOHN KIRK is known for his lyric voice, good sense of humor and versatile instrumental skills—fiddle, mandolin, guitar, banjo, keyboard and tin whistle. John demonstrates a vast knowledge of musical traditions. He is on the music faculty at both Bennington and Skidmore Colleges. He is also a composer, dancer, and dance caller. He and his wife, Trish, have their own recordings and John has contributed to many more. He also works with the Susquehanna Stringband, the Dawnland Singers, and the Vanaver Caravan. He can be heard on projects with Jay Ungar, Molly Mason, and other notable musicians.

TRISH MILLER plays guitar, banjo, dances and sings traditional and original music. She teaches banjo at Skidmore College and plays with John in Quickstep. She has been a touring artist, performing internationally. Trish is a dance caller and country dance choreographer with a diverse repertoire of circle, square, contra and mixer dances. Her rhythmic stepping style is rooted in the southern mountains with a mix of traditional clogging and more modern percussive steps.

SUE DUPRÉ has been calling contra, square and English country dances for 3 decades. She's been a featured performer at many festivals, and dance weekends, and as staff at dance camps. She's passionately devoted to the promotion and performance of historic English mummers plays and ceremonial dances. She is the founder and foreman of Handsome Molly, a molly dance team, and was the foreman for Shandygaff Longsword and Garland and a former member of Griggstown Lock, a rapper sword team. For many years, she has directed and performed in mummers plays in central NJ.

BOB DUPRÉ, a fine singer of traditional songs, especially maritime. He is also an accomplished Molly dancer, and provides the vocal accompaniment for the dances.

JERRY KOROBOW is a great guitar player with a widely varied repertoire. He'll be joining us on Saturday evening, after his duties as a cantor at Long Island’s Temple Am Echad. Jerry has been coming to the Brooklyn first-Wednesday sing for some time.

NORMAN KENNEDY, an NEA National Heritage Fellow, was born in Aberdeen, Scotland, where his family roots date to the 13th century. While learning songs, stories, and lore from family members and neighbors, Kennedy also spent time "hanging around" the local handweavers. He was for several years master weaver at Colonial Williamsburg. He traveled to the Outer Hebrides to learn local weaving, Gaelic songs, and cultural practices. Norman is a fine singer and a terrific storyteller.

DAVID JONES, originally from England and now NJ, has a large repertoire of folksong from both sides of the Atlantic. He’s performed songs from the great days of sail, Music Hall favorites, and traditional ballads around the world. He sings both a capella and with guitar and involves his audience in refrains and choruses from boisterous to sentimental.

if you have not attended any of the last three weekends, you are entitled to a $100 discount. Just note it on your registration form.
