Summer is really here. This is our July/August issue, so hold onto it. We have many events happening, happily!! What better way to spend a summer evening at our Ice Cream Social. Yum!. In addition, the Irish Traditional Music Sessions, the Sunnyside Singers club, the Shanty Sing, and the Folk Open Sing continue throughout the summer. TradMaD Camp continues at Pinewoods, during the last week of the summer.

As many of you know, Gert Gershowitz passed away in May. We weren’t able to get the word out to everyone in time for the funeral, but a number of people were able to attend the funeral. Gert’s daughter and son sent the following message.

Dear Pinewoods Friends,

Thank you so much for being with us at our mom's, Gert Gershowitz, funeral last month. I know many of you who were there were not able to sign the book. We want to thank you for being with us. It gave us great comfort to know that mom and dad's Pinewood's friends were with us!

Thank you for your kindness and for your friendship to mom and dad through the years! They loved it!

Thanks again,, Lynne and Marc

Thank you to the volunteers Marilyn Suffet, Eileen Pentel, Don Wade, and Will Wade-Pentel. We hope to see you at the next Newsletter Mailing. We really could use your help You can join us on Thursday, August 25, see above.

Margaret Murray has been contributing her time and energy as a hotline volunteer for the Met Council on Housing. The organization is in the process of moving to Canal and Elizabeth Streets. Margaret says that “during the in-between period” she has been “spending more time around the home front” with Bob Dohn and their four cats.

An article that I wrote, “Haunted by History: Revisiting Childhood Trauma in Philippe Grimbert’s Un Secret,” was published in the May 2016 issue of The French Review (vol. 89, no.4, pp. 122-35). It concerns trans-generational trauma in a book in which a child, who was born after World War II, learned that he had a brother who perished during the Holocaust.

Evy Mayer’s cousin, Danny Lyon, is a photographer whose work is currently being shown at the Whitney Museum of American Art. The exhibit of 175 photographs is entitled “Danny Lyon: Message to the Future.” It will be on view at the Whitney until September 25, 2016. COLLEEN CLEVELAND is a fifth-generation singer of traditional ballads and songs passed on by her grandmother, Sara Cleveland. Colleen and her Dad, Jim, keep the family songs alive. They received the 1994 Traditional Arts of Upstate New York Heritage Award. The family repertoire runs the gamut from 15th-century Irish, Scots, and English ballads to local area songs, cowboy songs, Civil War and World War I songs.

Archie Fisher is Scotland’s foremost troubadour, a stunning singer of traditional and contemporary songs, a fine songwriter, and a master guitarist. Hailing from a singing family in Glasgow, those musical beginnings have propelled him through five decades as a performer, documentarian, and host of BBC Radio Scotland’s award-winning “Traveling Folk” show. He is a Member of the British Empire, an honor recognizing “distinguished service to the arts” and an inductee in the Scots Traditional Music Hall of Fame.

Dennis Stroughmatt, fingers and bow flying, takes listeners on a musical odyssey of Upper Louisiana Creole culture. Schooled by local Creole fiddlers living along the Mississippi River near St. Louis, Dennis is now the authority. A vibrant blend of Celtic, Canadian and Old Time sounds, this music bridges gaps between contemporary Canadian and Louisiana Cajun styles. Preserved by families in the Ozark foothills, the music remains largely intact AND true to the traditions passed down over three centuries. www.creolefiddle.com

Susan Trump is a much sought-after instructor and performer. Susan’s magic stems from her ability to link the pastoral, tranquil images of traditional rural America to our contemporary life. Her songs touch the heart, recall the past, and inspire the times ahead. Her sense of humor always adds a fresh touch to her performances, combined with her outstanding artistry on the mountain dulcimer, guitar, banjo, and fretless banjo.
