Happy Traum — Coming of Age in the Greenwich Village Folk Revival and the Woodstock Scene: Friday, February 24th

With colorful anecdotes and incisive memories, and the aid of vintage photos and music clips, Happy Traum relates some of his adventures as an active member of the New York folk revival; his arrest for civil disobedience; his participation in what has become known as the "Great Folk Singers Riot" in Washington Square; and his friendships with some of the leading folk artists of the day. Happy was a regular in the Washington Square Park jam sessions, studied blues guitar with Brownie McGhee, and met, among many others, a young Bob Dylan. Happy punctuates his remembrances with powerful renditions of songs and guitar solos from the folk era and beyond. Happy's website: www.happytraum.com

HAPPY TRAUM

Coming of Age in the Greenwich Village Folk Revival and the Woodstock Scene (1954 - 1971)

AN INSIDER’S VIEW OF A HISTORICAL/MUSICAL ERA

Friday
Feb. 24th
7:30 PM
Saint John's Church, 81 Christopher Street

“Tales of Music and Friendship with Bob Dylan, Pete Seeger, Brownie McGhee and a Close Encounter with the ‘Great Washington Square Folk Singer’s Riot.’”

“One of the most satisfying and successful bookings I’ve accomplished as a booking agent and concert manager was in hosting Happy Traum’s program…. He relates his insider’s view of this historical/musical era in an entertaining and educational way that honors the performers, the audiences and the musical genre as well. I would encourage any concert venue, library, performing arts center, college, folk society or folk festival to host this consummate artist and speaker in presenting this superb program.”

- Stan Sullivan, Concert Manager, Roaring Brook Concerts, Canton, CT.

“\n
We were pleased to present Happy Traum’s “Coming of Age” program in a series of performances as part of our New York Living Folk Legacy Project. From the first notes of Happy’s folk and blues set that showcased his much admired finger-picking to his insider stories of the Greenwich Village music scene in the 50’s and ‘60s, audiences in all venues were captivated from start to finish.”

- Peter Lesser, Director, The Empire State Performing Arts Center (“The Egg”), Albany, NY.

Election Results
The ballots for Board of Directors have been counted: Total ballots received = 103;
All "yes" votes = 89; All yes partial or occasional "No" votes = 14
All members on the ballot were therefore elected. Clarice Kjerulff, whose name was unintentionally left off the ballot, was appointed to the board at the meeting on 22
February is the shortest month of the year, but there is no lack of music. Happy Traum will be in concert at the end of the month. Before then, however, we have our usual Irish Traditional Music, the Sunnyside Sings, the Folk Open Sing, and the Shanty Sing. That is not all. Our fabulous Winter Folk Music Weekend is coming up where we have no workshops, just a lot of people singing and playing instruments. Don’t forget they feed us well. The Maritime and Music and Song Session, and Tim Grimm at the Good Coffeehouse bring us even more music.

The votes are in for our board members. Thank you for continuing to serve and help to bring the music of many flavors that we love.

Then there is always our newsletter mailing. You too can join us. Thank you to the volunteers last month, Rosalie Friend, Steve and Marilyn Suffet, Don Wade, and Eileen Pentel. Come on and join us this month on Thursday, February 23rd! (see p.3)

Holiday Caroling/Sing-A-Long At Regal Heights Rehabilitation and Nursing Center

By Gail Levine-Fried, Ph.D.

T’was the day after Christmas, December 26th, and the sounds of “Deck the Halls.,” “Feliz Navidad,” and “I had a little dreydl” wafted through the halls of the Regal Heights Rehabilitation and Nursing Center in Jackson Heights. These and a whole selection of holiday songs were sung and accompanied by a merry group of volunteers from the Folk Music Society. For the 3rd consecutive year, Board member Eileen Pentel coordinated the project, drawing volunteers from far-flung corners of the city. According to Eileen, the project was begun by Marie Mularczyk and Maureen O’Sullivan, through their work at Temple Beth El, in Great Neck.

In all, we had over 20 volunteers, and on each floor, residents were gathered as we emerged from the elevators, playing and singing. Marie led the singing, playing on her lavishly decorated guitar. Paul Stein provided beautiful accompaniment on the accordion, and I strummed along on my guitar. Eileen made sure that residents on every floor had an opportunity for requests. And then we were off to the next floor, singing and playing.

Afterward, we met with Irina Dzevel, who is the Recreation Leader at the Center, and Betsy Lazarus, the Director of Activities. They expressed their appreciation to the group for lifting the spirits of the residents, and spoke of the importance of bringing talent from the outside, and especially at holiday times. From there, we trooped to Eileen and Don’s lovely home, just a couple of blocks from the Center, for a potluck and song circle. What a memorable holiday, indeed!

This annual project is one of the ways club members can give of themselves to improve the quality of life of our elderly brothers and sisters. The gratification one feels is truly beyond measure. We spread the spirit of the holidays by giving the gift of song to those who can no longer go to a concert or performance. We hope to see even more club members turn out for this wonderful holiday event next year.

TradMaD Camp (Traditional Music and Dance Camp)

We're again running a week (almost) at Pinewoods Camp, where the Club started. From Saturday, August 26 to Friday, September 1, 2017, we'll be singing, picking, dancing, jamming, swimming, relaxing -- all the things we love about Pinewoods Camp. Flier will be sent next month or REGISTER NOW at: www.tradmadcamp.org.
Several poems by Jane Babits were published in an anthology compiled by “The Parkside Poets” in 2016. One of them, entitled “Yesterday Pete,” is about Pete Seeger. Jane read this at an FMC-sponsored memorial for Pete.

Laura Schechter is currently the featured artist at the Harmon Meek Contemporary Gallery, 282 10th Avenue, Naples Florida (239-362-2699). This exhibition of Laura’s work is on view until February 4, 2017. To see some of her wonderful work on-line, go to: registry.bricartsmedia.org/profile.php?aid=5555

While Jane continues to write actively, Eileen Pentel continues to knit actively. She is a member of the Big Apple Knitting Guild and also belongs to the more informal Jackson Heights Knitting Circle. When she’s not knitting, Eileen works hard on our newsletter. She urges FMC members to come to the festive newsletter mailings held at her and Don’s home. She’s not needling us---well maybe a little. The mailings, she says, are SO MUCH FUN. You won’t regret attending! Look in the front page of the newsletter for the date of the next newsletter mailing. Please come and lend a hand.

In January, I attended the annual convention of the Modern Language Association that was held in Philadelphia. I attended many interesting forums. In addition, a special highlight of my four-day stay was touring the Barnes Foundation. This museum has an amazing collection of paintings by Impressionists and post-Impressionists as well as wonderful works of art from other periods.
