James Reams & the Barnstormers: Sunday, April 2nd; 4-6pm

James Reams & The Barnstormers provide a contemporary take on traditional bluegrass; blending it with innovation and vitality to create their own branch on the “roots” tree. Raised in eastern Kentucky but now living in Phoenix, James Reams frequently returns to the Brooklyn area to perform with his East Coast band. This band treads the terrain where bluegrass, old-time, classic country, honky tonk and rockabilly meet in the night to swap stories. These are the sounds of the hills and hollers combined with the sounds of factories, railroad yards and honky tonsks. If you’re looking for an exciting evening of music, look no further...this band delivers!!

Co-sponsored with and at the Good Coffeehouse at the Old Stone House, 336 Third Street, in J.J. Byrne Park, between 4th and 5th Avenues, Brooklyn, 718-768-3195; 4-6pm; $10 contribution. Info: fbanjo(at)aol.com; facebook page: http://on.fb.me/1UxthNr.

Join us on the first Wednesday of each month for an open sing. Bring your voice, instruments, friends, neighbors, and children. Drop by for a couple of songs or the whole evening. At the Ethical Culture Society, 53 Prospect Park West, Brooklyn (near Continued on next page)
Lou and Peter Berryman began their musical partnership in high school in Appleton, Wisconsin, way back in the sixties. By the late seventies, they had established themselves as a prominent feature of the song writing subculture of Wisconsin's capital, playing their original material every week for almost ten years in the run-down but trendy music room of Madison's Club de Wash. Gradually expanding their circuit, they began crisscrossing the continent and gaining national attention with appearances on such programs as Public Radio's A Prairie Home Companion and NPR's Weekend Edition. Regular appearances at festivals and folk music clubs all across the country now serve as venues for the songs contained in their eighteen recordings and four songbooks, which have been performed by everyone from Garrison Keillor to Peggy Seeger.

The popularity of Lou and Peter Berryman — whose friendship survived a brief marriage in the seventies — is a testament to their intelligent and wickedly funny material which is never bawdy or risqué but is rich with wordplay and witty images. This duo is not to be missed.

Contribution: general public $25; members of FMSN $20. You can book online at Eventbrite (small handling fee). At the Community Church, 40 E. 35th St. Take the #6 train to 33rd St. (2-1/2 blocks walk) or the B, D, F, N, Q, R trains to 34th Street/Herald Square (3-1/2 blocks) The venue is wheelchair accessible (including bathrooms).

Shanty Sing: Sunday, April 16th; 2-5pm

We are co-sponsoring the Shanty Sing on the 3rd Sunday of every month. The William Main Doerflinger Memorial Sea Shanty Sessions at the Noble Maritime Collection (to give the official title) are from 2 to 5 pm at the Noble Gallery, Building D, Snug Harbor Cultural Center, 1000 Richmond Terrace, Staten Island. Refreshments are available, including beer and wine for sale.

Snug Harbor is accessible by the S40 bus from the Staten Island Ferry Terminal and by car. For more information about the Noble Collection, go to http://www.noblemaritime.org -- click on "Visitor Information" for directions and a printable map. For further information contact Bob Conroy: RConroy421(at)aol.com or 347-267-9394.

Bing Futch at the Peoples' Voice Cafe: Saturday, April 29th; 8pm

With a big smile and wild dreadlocks, Bing Futch kicks off every performance with a buoyant energy that is inviting and energizing. Playing Appalachian mountain dulcimer, Native American flute, ukulele, drums, electronic effects, and a limber tenor voice, he deftly navigates the varied waters of traditional and modern Americana with passion, wit, and a huge heart for sharing music with a crowd. Known for his musical shape-shifting, Futch changes style with every new song. His casual way with any audience, coupled with a fierce originality on the dulcimer, makes each show a one-of-a-kind, good-time romp. At and sponsored by the Peoples' Voice Cafe. Community Church of NY. 40 E. 35th Street (lower level), Manhattan. Suggested contribution $20. FMSN members & PVC subscribers $12. Doors open 7:30pm. www.peoplesvoicecafe.org.

Weekend Scholarships Available

Applications are now being accepted for the Spring weekend for the George Parker Scholarship, the Mayer Scholarship and the Lil & Lou Appel Scholarship. These funds provide either full or partial scholarships to individuals who could not otherwise attend and who have a strong interest in folk music, singing, and/or instrumental playing.

TO APPLY: Please download an application from the website www.folkmusicny.org or request an application form from the address below. The most important considerations are financial need and interest in folk music. The candidates will be considered and notified by mail and/or e-mail. Please send it in, via mail or e-mail, to arrive before the deadline of April 28 to:

Marilyn Suffet,
41-05 47th Street, Sunnyside, NY 11104
Phone: 718-786-1533; E-mail: ssuffet@nyc.rr.com

To make our weekends available to more members there are several scholarship funds:

George Parker Scholarship - provides one full scholarship per fall or spring weekend to a club member otherwise unable to attend. The fund was established in memoriam by George’s parents, the New York Pinewoods Folk Music Club, and other contributors. George was a young man and a friend of folk music who greatly enjoyed our weekends.

Charles & Ilse Mayer Scholarship Fund - provides one full scholarship for each of the fall, winter, and spring weekends each year. This fund was set up in memoriam by board member Evy and Ilse Mayer in honor of Evy’s father Charles Mayer.

You may make a fully tax-deductible contribution in any amount to any of the funds above by sending a check payable to “Folk Music Society of New York” (noted with the name of the scholarship memorial) to our treasurer, Heather Wood, 444 W. 54 St, #7, NYC, NY 10019. To establish a new named fund in honor of or in memoriam to a loved one, please contact any of our current board members (see list in this newsletter).

The Lil & Lou Appel Scholarship is an independent fund which provides scholarship support for the spring and fall weekends to an individual who has a strong interest in folk music, singing, and/or instrumental playing. This fund was established by a loving group of regulars in memoriam to Lil’s 35+ years of bi-weekly Friday night sings, “a breeding and feeding ground for many of today’s accomplished singers and musicians.” For information, or to contribute, contact Alice Backer at 914-366-0037.

Spring Weekend, May 26-29
Hudson Valley Resort & Spa
see flier in centerfold
April is upon us and hopefully wonderful weather. We can look forward to a concert by the Berrymans which should be fun. We are also looking forward to James Reams & the Barnstormers, and Bing Futch. The FMSNY is also known for making our own music and we have many chances to do that: The Irish Traditional Music Sessions, the Sunnyside Singers Club, the Maritime and Music & Song Session, and The Shanty Sing. It’s also time to register for our Fall Music Weekend for a grand time.

Thank you to the stalwart volunteers who come out to mail out our fabulous newsletter: Last month Marilyn and Stephen Suffet, Betsy Mayer, Clarice Kjerulff, Eileen Pentel, Don Wade, and even Fievel the cat helped out-sort of! We could always use help. Come and join us at our next mailing on Monday, May 1st! (see page 4)

Eileen Pentel

Congratulations to Peter Johnson. His memoir, “The Laughing Lesson,” has been accepted for publication by Peter Randall publishers. It should be available to the public by next spring or early summer.

Toni Field writes: “After nearly 40 years of practicing clinical medicine, I finally retired from my clinic job at the end of February in order to have more time to pursue my other interests. Although I still plan to use my medical skills very part time doing ‘Wellness’ exams, I don't plan to make that the focus of my life.

Some of the academic activities I've already gotten involved with include: mentoring pre-med and medical students and participating in a STEM conference aimed at encouraging young women to enter the STEM fields. I've also joined the Contrapolitans, a band that plays for contra dancing sponsored by CDNY and the Brooklyn Accordian Club. I'm planning a trip to Cuba with my son Lucas in April and a dance cruise to Scandinavia and several Baltic countries in May. It feels great to finally have more time to visit with friends and family whom I haven't seen in ages; play more music; read some of the books on my ‘must read’ list; visit museums; see more movies and theater; and not have to look at my watch all the time. My first week of retirement was busier than ever! I'm already losing track of the days, but the transition has been easier than I anticipated. As an aunt of mine once said, ‘Retirement is when the sun rises and you don't!’ I highly recommend it.” Best wishes, Toni. Have a great time.

If you have news to share, contact me at 372 Central Park West, #15B, New York, NY 10025; 212-663-6309; ruthlipman[at]msn.com.

What’s up with (at)? To prevent harvesting of e-mail addresses, we replace @ with (at) in e-mail addresses.
We believe in the joy & strength that dance, music & song bring to individuals & communities. CDSS adult & family weeks (MA, MI, NH & WV) are a place to learn, share, have LOTS of fun, & take home what we learn to our respective communities. Whether you're a new camper, an every-year camper, or returning after several years, we welcome you! Connections made at camp enrich lives and last a lifetime. Come be enriched this summer!
