Summer doth approach. June is the pre-cursor and to help us plan our summer vacations, John Mazza has compiled the Festival listings. Thanks you again John for all your hard work compiling this information that is so useful for everyone.

We have lots of music to look forward to this month. Join us at our regular Irish Traditional Music Sessions, the Sunnyside Singers Club, the Folk Open Sing, the Shanty Sing on Staten Island, and the Good Coffeehouse. In addition, Martin & Shan Graebe, along with Nordet will be performing on June 6th. We know that summer is really here when we have our Ice Cream Social. Get your reservations in for a sweet and musical time.

Remember to register for TradMaD Camp. There are spaces left so you still have a chance to join us at Pinewoods Camp. Great staff, great settings and you—what could be better?

Thank you to our newsletter mailers—Clarice Kjerulff, Betsy Mayer, Heather Wood, Margaret Murray, Lynn Cole, Eileen Pentel, and Don Wade. We had a lot help which made our work much easier, and we had a lot of fun as well. Join us for our next mailing on June 29th (see page 3).

Eileen Pentel was honored by the New Visions Democratic Club as co-founder of the ‘Jackson Heights Martin Luther King, Jr. Mitzvah Day of Service’ as well as for her work as president of Kehillhe Tikvah (a Jewish ‘Community of Hope’). She was presented with a plaque that reads: “In recognition and grateful appreciation of your many contributions to the community and your tireless efforts to make all life better. You are a very special person.” She also received some certificates of recognition from local politicians. Eileen’s brother Harvey, who lives in Phoenix, attended the dinner-dance fundraiser at which Eileen was honored on April 27, 2017. During his visit, they also went to a cousin’s bar mitzvah. A great time was had by all.

Jerry Marcus’s second book, With Rake in Hand: Memoirs of a Yiddish Poet, a translation of the memoirs of Yiddish poet, Joseph Rolnik who lived in New York until his death in 1955, has been published by Syracuse University Press (2016) and is available from them or Amazon and other outlets. Rolnik, who wrote poetry at night after laboring in garment factories during the day, became an extremely influential and widely published poet. Marcus’s superb translation and his scholarly introduction to the text have been highly praised. Jerry is an artist as well as a writer and translator. His etchings are on display at an exhibition in Toulouse, France until the end of June.

Ann Green has been dedicating a good deal of time to exercise classes in order to counterbalance doctors’ appointments. In her acting class, she performed a short monologue from the play adaptation of the short story, “All About Eve.”
