Woody Sez

New York City folk music enthusiasts are fortunate to have an opportunity, for the next several weeks, to have a chance to see Woody Sez, a musical about the life and songs of Woody Guthrie. Playing at the Irish Repertory Theatre, 132 W. 22nd Street in Manhattan, through Sunday, July 23, the show takes you on a two hour plus journey through Woody’s life, from his childhood in Okemah, Oklahoma, to his experiences of the Dust Bowl, the migratory fruit and vegetable pickers in California, the hobo camps, his service in the Merchant Marines during World War II, and his career as a performer of his classic songs recreating that experience with groups such as the Almanac Singers and as a solo performer, and ending with his death from Huntington’s Disease in New York City.

Nancy Keness retired from Northwell Home Care (aka North Shore Long Island Jewish Hospital) in March. Although Nancy loved the work, it was becoming impossible to drive into Brooklyn for home visits. She is still available for physical therapy consultations and is also certified to advise dog owners about physical therapy in conjunction with a veterinarian. When I inquired about her four-footed clients, Nancy explained that dogs and people have similar problems. So many of the treatments are the same. A bonus is that appreciative canines often kiss the clinician during treatment.

Happy birthday to Ada Turkeltaub (Judy Polish’s mother). She celebrated her 100th birthday on March 8, 2017. She received a beautiful Proclamation from the Brooklyn Borough President, and letters from Senator Gillibrand and Yvette Clark. Although she faces physical challenges, Ada still loves to sing. "Over There" and "There’ll be Bluebirds over the White Cliffs of Dover" are two of her favorites.

Check out the article about Sylvia Elbaz in the June 19th issue of The Riverdale Press (riverdalepress.com) It concerns her career as a local TV chef. A nutritionist, Sylvia’s tips are chock full of information about delicious, healthy cooking and she peppers her advice with humor.

On a sad note, we lost a wonderful folk singer, songwriter and storyteller. Rosalie Sorrels passed away on June 11, 2017. She was 83 years old.

Eileen Pentel

Summer has come and I hope your plans for music and other wonderful happenings are in the works! This is our July/August issue, so I suggest that you hold onto this newsletter to keep track of upcoming events. Festival listings are included in this issue as well as last month’s issue. Thank you John Mazza for all your hard work on putting the listings together.

The Irish Traditional Music Sessions continue in July and August, as do the Sunnyside Singers club, the Folk Open Sing, and the Shanty Sing. In addition, in July we will also have a Young Folks and Old Folks concert and a Ring Garden Singing Party. Just to alert you that FMSNY members can get a discount to “Woody Sez”. Check out the flyer on p. 3 and the review on p. 6.

In August, TradMaD Camp (at Pinewoods camp in Massachusetts) still has some openings as of this writing. It’s a great vacation with great music in a wonderful setting.

Thank you to the wonderful volunteers who help to get the newsletter mailed out to you—Marilyn Suffet, Betsy Mayer, Lynn Cole, Eileen Pentel, and Don Wade. Come and join us on Thursday, August 24th (see page 3) —we could always use more help.

Woody Sez is not just the story of Woody Guthrie’s life, but the lives and struggles of everyone he met along the way. Woody Guthrie’s goal as a songwriter and singer was to tell the stories of the people he met in his travels, their hopes and dreams, their struggles and disappointments and victories, and most of all, their determination to go on no matter what obstacles were placed in their way. The play does not shy away from Woody’s political views as a Communist and radical in the 1930s through the McCarthy period in the 1950s and it also takes an honest, non-sentimental look at Woody’s family history, ranging from the fires that Woody’s mother, also suffering from Huntington’s Disease, set in their homes in Oklahoma, to his marriages, the tragic death of his daughter Cathy in a fire in their home in Coney Island, and his final years in and out of hospitals in New York.

The role of Woody is played by David Lutken, who co-wrote the play and many of the musical arrangements. He is joined by Megan Loomis, Helen Jean Russell and Andy Teirstein, who collectively sing and play more than 20 of Woody’s best known songs and others during the course of the performance. The talented cast play a multitude of instruments including guitars, banjo, fiddles, viola, upright bass, mountain dulcimer, harmonica, penny whistle, mandolin, autoharp, and probably some I forgot. There’s a great temptation to join in on the choruses, something that Woody and the cast of this show would certainly approve of, and the audience gets an opportunity to do during the encore. On Sundays at 6 PM, after the matinee, the audience is invited to join the cast for a hootenanny at The Stonehouse, a bar located on 23rd Street, just east of 6th Avenue.

FMSNY members can get a 20% discount on their tickets to Woody Sez by using the code FOLKNY when purchasing through IrishRep.org or calling 212.727.2737. If you enjoy the music of Woody Guthrie and want to go on travel3ing with him through his life’s journey then Woody Sez is the show for you. It’s only going to be at the Irish Repertory Theatre through Sunday, July 23, so get your tickets now.
