Geoff Muldaur: Friday, October 6th; 8pm
Geoff is one of the great voices and musical forces to emerge from the folk, blues, and folk-rock scenes centered in Cambridge, MA and Woodstock, NY. During the 1960s and ’70s, he made a series of highly influential recordings as a founding member of the Jim Kweskin Jug Band and the Paul Butterfield's Better Days group, as well as collaborations with then-wife Maria and other notables (Bonnie Raitt, Eric Von Schmidt, Jerry Garcia, etc.). He composed scores for film and television, and produced off-beat albums for the likes of Lenny Pickett and the Borneo Horns and the Richard Greene String Quartet. Geoff’s definitive recording of "Brazil" provided the seed for - and was featured in - Terry Gilliam's film of the same title.

Fall Folk Music Weekend: October 27th- 29th at HVRS

Ed Trickett: Friday, November 3rd, 8pm
Ed has been collecting, crafting, and performing folk songs for many years, combining a love of traditional music with an enthusiasm for spreading it around. He has been performing for over 50 years in coffee houses, colleges, and folk music festivals and clubs in the United States, Canada, and the British Isles. Playing 6- and 12-string guitar, hammered dulcimer, and piano, his repertoire ranges from traditional ballads to songs of the sea, labor songs, songs of love and parodies. He has appeared several times on Garrison Keillor's Prairie Home Companion. Ed is a psychologist 40 hours a week and a musician the rest of the time. The Washington Post wrote, "Ed Trickett has an unaffected tenor and a living-room-folk approach. The aura of shared intimacies and unhurried feeling in his delivery creates a powerful sense that the music comes straight from the man, not a record."

At OSA Hall, 220 E. 23rd Street, suit 707, (bet. 2nd & 3rd Ave), Manhattan. Admission: general public $20; FMSNY members $18; full-time students & those under 17 $10. Info: 646-628-4604.

Hard to believe that October is here already. Happily, we have a lot to look forward to this month. The Fall Folk Music Weekend is coming up quickly. There are still spaces left, so be sure to sign up. Check out the brochure in this issue. We’ll have a great time.

Our usual programs and sings continue; the Irish Traditional Music Sessions, the Sunnyside Singers Club, the Folk Open Sing, the Chantey & Folk Song & Music Session, and the Shanty Sing. In addition, John Roberts will be performing in concert as will Geof Muldaur. There are also a singing party in Brooklyn and a new song swap in Manhattan. Don’t forget to explore the Tradiginal Folk Music performance and talk. Quite a lot to do this month.

Thank you to the volunteers to mailed out your newsletter in September—Fran Levine, Clarice Kjerulf, Marilyn Suffet, Eileen Pentel, and Don Wade. Won’t you join us at the next mailing? Thursday, October 26th (see page 4).

The Folk Process

by Ruth Lipman

In May, Rita and Mark Hamburger were honored for their service by their synagogue, the Hebrew Tabernacle Congregation, at its 11th anniversary dinner. In addition to being a vice president, Rita has run a weekly exercise class for the last 30 years or so, donating all proceeds to the temple. Mark has been on the Board of Trustees for 37 years, 14 of them as an officer and five of them as president.

In the previous “Folk Process” column, I mentioned an article about Sylvia Elbaz that appeared in a June issue of The Riverdale Press (riverdalepress.com). (Thank you Evy Mayer for forwarding the article to me). The article concerns Sylvia’s career as a local TV chef. Since then, Sylvia has filled me in with more information of particular interest to us folk music people. There is always music! For example, music attuned to themes plays as the credits roll. An example is Toby Fagenson’s “Peppermint Tea” which complemented the program about Chinese herbs. “Nutrition is my mission, but music is my passion,” says Sylvia. For more tasty morsels, you can catch her program on Sunday mornings at 8:30 on-line via Manhattan Neighborhood Network (mnn.org). It is also accessible on channel 56 TV (Time-Warner cable).

Gail Levine-Fried writes about a memorable two-week vacation in Oregon this August with her husband, Bob. “One of the highlights was our visit to the Bonneville Dam in the Columbia River Gorge area. We had recently seen "Woody Sez" at the Irish Repertory Theatre and knew that Woody worked as a ‘research assistant’ in 1940 for the Bonneville Power Authority. It was during his time at the dam and learning about the ‘taming’ of the powerful Columbia River and the transformative changes the dam brought that Woody wrote "Roll On, Columbia Roll On." On the day that we visited, I was so moved seeing the sheer force of the water surging through the dam and thousands of salmon swimming against the current to get to their spawning ground, that I burst into choruses of "Roll On, Columbia Roll On."
Columbia, Roll On! The nearby Fish Hatchery, maintained by the US Dept. of Conservation is also an amazing place to visit. Another musical highlight was Astoria, a city on the northern coast of Oregon, which used to be the home of the Bumble Bee Salmon and Tuna Canning Factory. Thousands were employed there until it closed in 1981. The factory building now houses a Museum depicting the history of the Bumble Bee operation in Astoria and over and over, we heard the recording of the "Bumble Bee Tuna" jingle: "I love Bumble Bee, Bumble Bee Tuna." It's so well known, we consider it a "folk song" from our youth!"

THE JAMCRACKERS, are Peggy Lynn - concertina, Dan Berggren - guitar, and Dan Duggan - hammered dulcimer, playing traditional and original music of the Adirondacks. Their musical performance is genuine and contagious. The trio's diverse blend of folk and blues, ballads, gospel, and dance tunes sparks a rare chemistry and a guaranteed good time. www.jamcrackersmusic.com

DAN BERGGREN is an award-winning educator and songwriter with deep Adirondack roots. His music reflects the spirit and people of that region. Author and environmental activist Bill McKibben says: "Dan is a throwback to the old role of the folk singer... he's articulating things that need to be said right now." www.berggrenfolk.com

DAN DUGGAN, National Hammered Dulcimer Champion, is known from Maine to California for his wizardry on the hammered dulcimer, flat-picking guitar, and keyboards. Dan will be dance caller for the weekend. www.esperanceproductions.com

Sam Edelston is an entertainer with many facets. He pushes the creative boundaries of the mountain dulcimer and also performs on guitar, banjo, and hammered dulcimer. He does songs that span the rock & roll era plus original songs, funny songs, shout-alongs, and more. www.samthemusicman.com
