The Piedmont Bluz acoustic duo is dedicated to the preservation of Country Blues and the Piedmont style and their mission is to help keep this rural, east coast tradition alive by educating audiences about this unique aspect of African-American culture through musical entertainment. The husband and wife duo are much loved wherever they go and feel that "there are stories to tell, people to remember, and things that must be said" so, in addition to tickling your ears with delightful music, they weave a bit of history into the presentation of each song.

He is critically recognized as one of the best bluegrass singers to come out of the New York area. Clarence Ferrari has performed with countless musicians including Pete Seeger, Tom Chapin, Tom Paxton, Roswell Rudd, Davey Arthur of The Furies, Les Binks of Judas Priest, and The Brooklyn Philharmonic. His “fast and floating fiddle” does both Irish and bluegrass music.

Gathering Time; Sunday, March 4th, 4-6 pm
Voted best band runner-up (and top folk band) in the 2011 Long Island Press readers' poll, Gathering Time is like a high-energy Peter, Paul & Mary or a co-ed Crosby, Stills & Nash, with various parts of The Byrds, Joni Mitchell, the Eagles and America mixed in; a head-turning folk-rock harmony trio described recently as "getting a whole beehive-full of buzz" on the northeast regional folk scene. WFUV's John Platt has written that they are "among the finest performers in the New York metropolitan area, whatever the size of the venue, from a house concert to an outdoor festival," with "harmonies that can charm the birds out of the trees, strong original songs, and a savvy repertoire of cover songs, ranging from traditional folk to classic rock. They appeal to audiences of all ages."

From the Editor

Eileen Pentel

It’s hard to believe that February is here already, a great month to come to our Winter Folk Music Festival Weekend at Honor’s Haven in Ellenville. It is a new/old venue for us. We were there some time ago. It is now renovated so it will be exciting to see what it looks like now. The music made by us remains wonderful and exciting. I am looking forward to seeing you there. See the flier for details.

Of course we have many other events this month. So many in fact, that we can’t list everything in March as we usually do on the front page. We are only going as far as the middle of the month so that all of our February events can be listed. We have our usual Irish Traditional Music Sessions, our Sunnyside Singers Club with music by participants and once a month a guest performer, the Folk Open Sing, the new Upper West Side Song Swap, the Shanty Sing and a new monthly event, the New World Folk Club. And don’t forget the Piedmont Bluz will be performing at the Good Coffee House.

Of course we also have our monthly Board of Directors Meeting to which you are welcome to come. They have been re-elected this year. We want to thank them all for continuing to serve and making sure that FMS runs smoothly.

Our other exciting event is our Newsletter Mailing! That’s how we get these newsletters to you. We can use your help as always (on February 26th; see above). Thank you to the volunteers from last month, Marilyn and Steve Suffet, Eileen Pentel and Don Wade. Thank you to Heather Wood for mailing out our ballots and to all of you who sent it in. It is very important that you do vote, so that we know of your support. And it is also important that you vote in this country’s elections. I think of all the people who fought so hard to get the right to vote. If nothing else, voting is a way of saying thank you to them.

Updated FMSNY events information (online) is available on our website at: http://www.folkmusicny.org
2017 was an interesting and exciting year for Mark and Rita Hamburgh. Mark writes "Aside from the birth of two grandsons (reported in a previous 'Folk Process' column) we were fortunate, between business trips and vacations, to get in some exciting traveling around the U.S. We were in Austin, San Antonio, Little Rock, Taos, Santa Fe and Albuquerque. We visited two national parks (Grand Canyon and Hot Springs in Arkansas). We have now been to 55 of the 59 national parks, two national forests (Ozark in Arkansas and Carson in New Mexico), three national historical sites (LBJ in Texas, Little Rock Central High School and Los Alamos), one national preserve (Valles Caldera in New Mexico), one national wilderness (Bisti de-na-zin in New Mexico), and 13 national monuments (Kasha Katuwe Tent Rocks, Rio Grande del Norte, Bandelier, El Malpais and Petroglyphs in New Mexico, Vermilion Cliffs, Wupatki, Sunset Crater Volcano and Walnut Canyon in Arizona, and in Utah, Rainbow Bridge, Natural Bridges and...Grand Staircase Escalante and Bears Ears). As you might suspect, I have been active in the cause of protection of the federal public lands.”
