Enjoy two very different acts in one evening. John Ziv and Tom Weir, both members of the FMSNY Board of Directors, will perform together as a duo for the first time ever in public. “Something old, something new, something borrowed, something blue” is an apt description for what you will hear. Tom and John will be performing a variety of familiar, original, borrowed, and blues songs, with lots of sing-along choruses and refrains. Proceeds from the set will be donated to the Peoples’ Voice Cafe. Colleen Kattau, an Associate Professor of Spanish at SUNY Cortland, is a bi-lingual singer-songwriter whose music joins rhythms of Latin America with her own roots in folk, rock, and jazz. Her innovative poetic lyrics cover a wide and varied range from soulful sensual songs to rise-up-and-change-the-world anthems. Her band, Dos XX, will perform with her and was formed in 2012 with Colleen on vocals, rhythm guitar, and ukulele; Jane Zell on lead guitar and vocals; Connie Walters on percussion and vocals; and Mike Brandt on electric bass. They call themselves “a Latin-fem-folk fusion of bilingual originals and songs in Spanish, French and even a little Arabic.”

At and cosponsored with the Peoples' Voice Cafe at Community Church of NY, 40 East 35th Street (lower level), between Park & Madison, New York NY 10016. Suggested donation $20. FMSNY members or PVC subscribers $12. Doors open 7:30pm. Show time 8:00pm. For info call 212-787-3903.

Eileen Pentel

By the time you receive this newsletter, Spring will be on the way, I hope. There are many wonderful musical happenings this month: our usual Irish Traditional Music Sessions, the Sunnyside Singers Club, the Upper West Side Song Swap, the Shanty Sing, The Folk Open Sing, and the Upper West Side Song Swap. In addition, there is the Pete Seeger Memorial Sing, and the concerts with Gathering Time at the Good Coffee House, Lois Morton, as well as Keith Murphy at OSA. Don’t forget the People’s Voice Café’s concerts and also Sam Harnett and Erica Mancini at the New World Folk Club. This is a very busy and musical month.

We have sad news. Sonja Savig passed away this month. She was a dear friend and I will miss her very much. She taught so many people to find their voices and was an important part of the club. We found out just before we left for the winter weekend. We were able to sing a song for her and video it, which we are sending to her family in Colorado. See Ruth’s column for more information.

Thank you to the volunteers who helped us to send these newsletter on their way to you—Marilyn and Steve Suffet, Eileen Pentel, and Don Wade. We can always use more help (on March 29th; see page 5). We also have a good time while we are busy preparing your newsletters.

We have sad news. Sonja Savig died on February 8th. In addition to being a wonderful performer, Sonja was a master teacher who taught many club members to sing better. Last night, I placed her album, Nu Takk for Alt (Now Thanks for Everything) on the turntable and, once again, listened to her mellifluous voice singing her beloved Norwegian folk songs. Goodbye, Sonja. We will miss you. Condolences to the family can be sent c/o Sonja’s nephew: Berndt Savig, 1406 Lake Shore Drive, Boulder, CO 80302. You can view her obituary online, which includes information on her March 4 memorial service in Colorado, at: http://www.legacy.com/obituaries/canyoncourier.

An exhibition of new works by Gerald Marcus will be on the 4th floor of the Prince Street Gallery, 530 West 26th Street, New York, NY from February 27 to March 24, 2018. The gallery’s hours are 11am to 6pm, Tuesday-Saturday. Jerry invites all of us to the opening reception on Thursday, March 1st from 5-8pm. For more information about these beautiful landscapes and figure compositions, check the gallery’s website: www.princestreetgallery.com

An article by Clarice Kjerulf, entitled “The Folk Music Society of New York—A Jackson Heights Love Story,” appeared in the Fall 2017 issue of Views from the Heights. Clarice writes about the role of FMSNY in Jackson Heights where folk music is thriving: “Although FSMNY is not officially based in Jackson Heights, many of its governing board members have lived in the community since the group’s inception—bringing friends and romantic partners to join them.” To read the rest of this lively and informative piece, go to: http://bit.ly/JHtsArticle

Susan Bady has adopted two “rescue cats.” They are siblings, now named Zsa Zsa and Boychik. Susan, a psychotherapist, is training them to follow in the pawprints of their predecessors, Boots and Tiger, who were highly skilled therapy cats. Boots and Tiger lived until ripe old age and worked with Susan as a team. Susan calls them the “dream team.” During sessions, Tiger sat on Susan’s lap while Boots sat on the patient’s lap. Zsa Zsa and Boychik are beginning to do the same thing. Susan’s account of her Freudian felines got me wondering about what other interesting stories are out there about members’ pets. Please send them in. I would like to collect and then assemble them together in this column.

Letter To the Editor

To the Board and Members of the Folk Music Society of New York,

Thank you so much for your very generous grant to Youth Traditional Song Weekend! The [money] you gave us allowed many people to attend who would not have been able to without financial assistance (both young and young-at-heart singers). It has also allowed us to offer travel stipends both to staff and to attendees.

At YTS, our mission is to create an accessible environment for singers, especially young singers, to learn and build community with each other. We are grateful for your contribution and your support, both now and over the years as we’ve grown. We look forward to singing with you all at YTS if you’re coming, and at many great song events in the future!

We hope you’re well and staying warm!

With gratitude and songs,

The Youth Traditional Song Weekend Organizing Committee
