Martyn Wyndham-Read: Friday, September 7th; 7:30pm
House concert with Martyn Wyndham Read - fabulous songster from Down Under. In his late teens he left his mother’s farm in Sussex, England, and headed off, with his guitar, to Australia where he worked on a sheep station in Emu Springs, South Australia. It was there that he heard the old songs sung by some of the station hands and he became captivated by these songs and their history. Back to England in 1967 where he met the renowned singer and song collector Bert Lloyd, who himself had spent time in Australia. Martyn was asked by Bert Lloyd to be part of the album ‘Leviathan’ on the Topic label and soon after he started recording for Bill Leader and touring extensively worldwide. We are thrilled to be able to hear him in this intimate house concert setting. At a private house in Forest Hills. Queens. Reservations essential - call Heather at 646-628-4604. General public $15, members $12.

Shanty Sing: Sunday, September 16th; 2-5pm
We co-sponsor the Shanty Sing on the 3rd Sunday of the month. The William Main Doerflinger Memorial Sea Shanty Sessions at the Noble Maritime Collection (to give the official title) are from 2 to 5pm at the Noble Gallery, Building D, Snug Harbor Cultural Center, 1000 Richmond Terrace, Staten Island. Snug Harbor is accessible by the S40 bus from the Staten Island Ferry Terminal and by car. For continued on next page

Upper West Side Song Swap; Sunday, Sept. 16th; 5-8pm

To: Upper West Side Song Swappers and Others: You’ve had all summer to learn some new songs or polish up the old ones that you love to sing and now, once again, it’s time for your voices to be heard. That’s right, the Upper West Side Song Swap is about to kick off Season 2! So, if you’ve been before, it’s time to come back, and if you want to hear some of the best songs, voices and instrumentalists on the Upper West Side, and bring your own as well. Time: Sunday, September 16th from 5 to 8 PM. Place: Hostelling, International New York, 891 Amsterdam Avenue at 103rd Street. It’s free and everyone is welcome. For more information call John Ziv at 212-662-6575. See you in September. (That sounds like it could be the name of a song!) The Upper West Side Song Swap is organized by FMSNY and PMN.

Park Slope Bluegrass & O-T Jamboree, September 21-22

The sounds of banjos, fiddles, mandolins, guitars and big upright basses echo through the “hills and hollers” of Brooklyn. The Jamboree, held at the historic Old Stone House, MiddleSchool 51, and J.J. Byrne Park, starts with a bluegrass concert on Friday night at 8 pm (doors open at 7:30 pm); Saturday afternoon is 12:30 to dark and the concert is 6-10pm. Saturday includes a full day of activities, with workshops in banjo, fiddle, harmony singing, autoharp, and more, plus all day jamming and an evening concert; food will be offered on site on Saturday. We are co-sponsoring this event (run by with the Good Coffeehouse and James Reams) held at 336 Third Street, in J.J. Byrne Park, between 4th and 5thAvenues, Brooklyn, It is near the R train's 9th Street station and the F train's 4th Avenue station. Further info: http://www.jamesreams.com/jamboree or 718-374-1086.

Elias Ladino Ensemble + Mara Goodman, Sat., Sept. 29th, 8pm

Mara Goodman is a classically trained vocalist and a folksinger whose extensive repertoire includes Jewish songs in Yiddish, Hebrew, Ladino, English, and Arabic.

The Elias Ladino Ensemble, founded by the late Joe Elias and now led by his son Daniel Elias, is one of the very few Sephardic musical groups whose vocalists are native speakers of Ladino. They are the real deal, having been born and raised in the Sephardic Ladino musical tradition, rather than having learned their songs and tunes solely from records, books, and sheet music.

At and cosponsored with the Peoples' Voice Cafe at Community Church of NY, 40 East 35th Street (lower level), between Park & Madison, New York NY 10016. Suggested donation $20. FMSNY members or PVC subscribers $12. Doors open 7:30pm. Show time 8:00pm. For info call 212-787-3903.

Fall Folk Music Weekend: October 26-28

Enjoy a friendly music-filled weekend at the Hudson Valley Resort & Spa, Kerhonkson, NY. Concerts, workshops, and classes with performers to be announced. Comfortable rooms; plenty of opportunity for informal jamming and singing, socializing, hiking, swimming, and relaxing. Join this community of music. See flyer in centerfold -- Reserve now!
September is almost here as I write this column, and we hope that you will be receiving your newsletter in a timely fashion. If you haven’t, please let us know, because we will have to go back to the old way of mailing the newsletters, and we will definitely need your help.

Musically speaking, September starts the season off with our usual Irish Traditional Music Sessions, Sunnyside Singers Club, the Folk Open Sing, the Shanty Sing and our fabulous Board Meeting. Note that the Board meeting this month is on the third Monday, September 17th because of Rosh Hashanah.

On September 29th, at the People’s Voice Café, the Elias Ladino Ensemble and Mara Goodman will be performing.

We also have sad news. George Sprung, Roger Sprung’s brother, passed away. Laura Shechter also passed away. See Ruth’s Column and the article about Laura. We also just heard that Michael Kaye passed away recently in August. Our lives were richer because of them, and we shall miss them.

Weekend Discounts Available

There are two weekend discounts available: A $100 discount for anyone who has not attended any of the last 3 weekends; and a special "friends" rate for any group of 3 or more age 21-35 registering at the same time. Information on this "friends" rate is on the weekend flier in the centerfold.

Weekend Scholarships Available

Applications are now being accepted to the Fall Weekend for the George Parker Scholarship and the Mayer Scholarship. These funds provide either full or partial scholarships to individuals who could not otherwise attend and who have a strong interest in folk music, singing, and/or instrumental playing.

TO APPLY: Please download an application form from the website www.folkmusicny.org/weekends.html, or request an application form from the address below. The most important considerations are financial need and interest in folk music. The candidates will be considered and decided upon at a Board meeting and notified by phone, e-mail, or USPS mail.

Please send it in, via mail or e-mail, to arrive before September 8th to:
Marilyn Suffet, Phone: 718-786-1533; E-mail: ssuffet@nyc.rr.com
41-05 47th Street, Sunnyside, NY 11104.

George Parker Scholarship - provides one full scholarship per fall or spring weekend to a club member otherwise unable to attend.

Charles & Ilse Mayer Scholarship Fund - provides one full scholarship for each of the fall, winter, and spring weekends each year.

You may make a fully tax-deductible contribution in any amount to any of the funds above by sending a check payable to “Folk Music Society of New York” (noted with the name of the scholarship memorial) to our treasurer, Heather Wood, 444 W. 54 St, #7, NYC, NY 10019 To establish a new named fund in honor of or in memoriam to a loved one, please contact any of our current board members (see list on page 21 of this newsletter).

Ethel Raim To Receive National Heritage Award
Ethel Raim, singer, teacher, and founder of the Center for Traditional Music & Dance is the recipient of the 2018 Bess Lomax Hawes NEA National Heritage Fellowship in recognition of an individual who has made a significant contribution to the preservation and awareness of cultural heritage. She will receive a $25,000 award and be honored in Washington, DC at an awards ceremony on September 26, 2018 and at a free concert on September 28, 2018. The concert will be streamed live at 8 PM. Information at www.arts.gov.
Ann Green writes: “I have more bad news to report. On July 24th George Sprung died at the age of 91. George was a folk music and jazz devotee, a long-time club member and an all-around good guy.” Condolences may be sent to Rebecca Sprung, 255 West 88th Street, Apartment 7B, New York, NY 10024-1717.

Michael Kaye died in August. Services were held August 14th, at Conservative Synagogue Adath Israel of Riverdale. The club extends condolences to his wife Rebecca, daughter Ariel, and the rest of his family.

Laura Shechter died in May. Gary Goodenough contributed the brief biography of Laura’s career as an artist, on the next page.

We have some good news too. Evy Mayer sent in the following:

In July, Evy Mayer attended the AAAA (The Antique Advertising Association of America) Convention in Chicago. The organizer of the convention finally twisted her arm enough to get her to agree to do a presentation. Here is the description: “Evy has been collecting since childhood. It all started with miniature figurines. A chance encounter with another collector at a New York City street fair, soon after she had started collecting sample talcum tins, led to her joining the now defunct TCCA (Tin Container Collectors of America). While miniatures were the focus of her collecting, even small things start to add up and take up space. The next challenge was how to display all the stuff in a New York City apartment. Evy let us in on how she has found ways to show off her collectibles, sometimes even using more collectibles in the process.” The presentation was a big success, with many collectors expressing admiration at how she has displayed everything. Evy will follow up with photos and articles in Checkerboard, the AAAA online magazine, so people can see her collections in more detail.

Barbara Mehlman shares some information about her life: “After spending six weeks in Firenze, and six weeks in Verona, studying Italian in both cities, I decided to continue my studies here in New York with the goal of becoming fluent and eventually teaching English in Italy. In April, I returned from a vacation to southern Africa that included South Africa, Zimbabwe, Botswana, and Namibia. In July I spent a week in Bar Harbor eating lobster rolls every day. I just returned from northern Italy with my granddaughter Olivia (Alison’s daughter). I will return to Italy for the month of October doing an in-depth tour of Rome and a week of cooking in Tuscany. The rest of the time I’ll be bumming around, eating, sightseeing, and visiting new friends. Both Alison and Melissa are doing well, and Melissa’s older boy, Jack, just graduated from high school. He’ll be attending the University of New England in September because he just loves Maine. Next year, I’ll be going to Sicily, Morocco, Memphis and Nashville, and maybe Newfoundland. I’m loving retirement but I do more than travel. I started a small company called Technology for the Terrified and I give workshops to seniors to help them communicate with their adult children who refuse to speak to them on the phone. Life is good and I hope it is as good for all of you.”

If you have news to share, contact me at 372 Central Park West; #15B, New York, NY 10025; 212-663-6309, ruthlipman(at)msn.com.
Notes about Laura Shechter's Career

As we enjoy the company of the people in our song-circles, it can come as a pleasant surprise to learn about their interesting careers and professions. Laura Shechter was one such person. Laura, and her late husband Ben were long-time members of several song-circles, including the Brooklyn Wednesday night group, and the Sea Chantey group in South Street Seaport (now in Snug Harbor).

Laura loved music, but her life’s work was art. She had been a devoted social worker after graduating from Brooklyn College in 1965, but after her first solo show in 1971, painting became her sole career. She was very hard-working and prolific. Her paintings were presented and sold in galleries in NYC, as well as Florida, and places as far-flung as Detroit and Oklahoma City.

The substance of her work, at the beginning of her career, was meticulously rendered still-life images of interesting decorative objects, in domestic settings. The form was called Photo-realism, and Laura approached the work in a very cerebral, intellectual and technical way. Yet the paintings are completely accessible and beautiful.

To quote her friend Louise Luger (also an artist):
“…the work was excellent, both in composition and technical skill. In those days, she used to say her work represented 'problem solving' - which I believe she meant in a technical and artistic way. But I always saw a nostalgic element to the painting; a tablecloth that an aunt may have had, the type of vase your grandmother set on the mantle piece, the plate of fruit your grade school pal's family placed upon the table in case someone dropped by. These 'prosaic' visions could evoke memories, and a feeling of a certain time and group of people, now encased in an artistic description of a domestic scene, as a fly in amber. A realist artist like Laura may just be representing an arrangement of shapes or a moment in time (as we photographers do) - but the work of art can transcend the plastic elements of the composition, and gain a personal meaning for the viewer.”

In more recent years, Laura expanded her technique and vision, and began to paint urban landscapes, treating the static architecture like a still-life arrangement. This presented many challenges, but the paintings were very well received and Laura enjoyed pushing the boundaries of her skills and artistic vision. Laura and Ben walked many miles around the city, looking for vistas to capture in her paintings.

The success of the Urban Landscapes led to another career direction; the graffiti paintings. The presence of graffiti on the buildings in Laura’s paintings brought an expanded audience for her work. It was a wonderful serendipity. Laura started an additional project, with a focus on the interaction between urban architecture and street art.

Just this summer, Laura had received a $20,000 grant from the prestigious Lee Krasner foundation. She was preparing to travel to Detroit and then to London, to study, and work. She was still making arrangements for this when she entered Weill-Cornell-Presbyterian Hospital, back in May. Sadly, the treatment for her Lymphoma did not go as expected, and the ensuing complications were fatal.

Laura’s art can be seen at the Brooklyn Museum, www.brooklynmuseum.org/eascfa/feminist_art_base/laura-j-shechter
