Geoff Kaufman: Concert, Friday, November 30th, 7:30pm; Workshop, Saturday, December 1st, 2-4pm
Geoff sings songs of the sea, songs of the earth, songs of the heart and the spirit. Ancient ballads, work songs, and songs of love; poignant songs of people in struggle, humorous glimpses of human foibles, and insights into history — all of these are likely to be woven into Geoff's work. Above all, at the core of Geoff’s performance is his rich tenor voice and an exuberant love of singing. And part of that love is to entice audiences to sing along, to share in the exhilaration of full-throated vocalization if they wish. In this age of electronic overload and passive media pablum, Geoff likes to stress the "live" in live performance, promoting participation, be it by voice or heart or mind. Concert 7:30pm at OSA Hall, 220 East 23rd St, Manhattan. Contribution: $25 general public, $20 members, $15 fulltime student/child. Tickets at the door.

Workshop (Saturday): Exploring the African/African American roots of sea chanteys. Building upon the recent publication of Gibb Schreffler’s book Boxing the Compass, Geoff will delve into the idea that the singing of chanteys on deep water ships developed from black sailors bringing aboard their tradition of call and response music. At Pearl Studios, 519 Eighth Ave, Room H, Manhattan, between 35th & 36th Sts. Contribution: general public $15, members $12. Reservations required, contact Heather at 646-628-4604, hwood50@aol.com

Anne Price, Sunday, December 9th, 3 pm
Longtime FMSNY member and Riverdale resident Anne Price has been performing since 1979 for folk music societies, coffeehouses, schools, colleges, libraries, and festivals in the New York area as well as the UK. Anne is known for her stunning voice, which has been compared to Joan Baez's. Her wide repertoire of traditional and contemporary folk music includes country songs, old-time ballads, Irish and Scottish songs, songs of the sea, songs about work and the labor movement, humorous songs, love songs, and more. This promises to be a very enjoyable concert. The concert will be hosted by Lindsay Wilson.
Co sponsored by and at The Coffeehouse@Ethical, Riverdale-Yonkers Society for Ethical Culture, 4450 Fieldston Rd., Riverdale (Bronx). Suggested donation is $15.

FMSNY Birthday Jam & Sing, Friday, Dec. 14th; 7:30pm
Come help us celebrate our 53rd year with a potluck dinner and two sings. One will be a Bluegrass/Old-timey jam and sing, led by Triple Play (Robbie Wedeen, Drew Smith, & Rich Rainey). People who like to take instrumental breaks are very welcome at this one, as are those who just like to sing (or play and sing.) The other will be a jam that welcomes any combination of accompanied or unaccompanied singing. It will be led by Judy Meiselman and Nancy Montgomery. The sings will be in two different areas of OSA Hall. People can drift from one to the other as the spirit moves them. Bring a potluck dish to share (please check with Evy, president[at]folkmusicny.org, or call 718-549-1344 after 11 am, so we don't drown in onion dip). And it's FREE. At OSA Hall, 220 East 23rd St, Suite 707 (between 2nd and 3rd Ave's).

Shanty Sing: Sunday, December 16th; 2-5pm

Meet us at Regal Heights Rehabilitation and Health Care Center, 70-05 35th Avenue (between 71st and 70th Streets in Jackson Heights, Queens) at 2pm. We have sad news. Neil Cohen died on November 11th. His wife Kathy sent in the following brief bio:

Neil Cohen died on November 11th of heart failure. Born and raised in Brooklyn, he loved his family, the outdoors, folk music, and medicine. While in Brooklyn College he belonged both to the Folk Music and Open Road Clubs and his favorite class was hanging out on the library steps, or in the rose garden with Kathy. Despite his lackadaisical attitude towards studying, his only ambition was to become a doctor. He was accepted into a Swiss medical school where his four years of studying German were useless since the school was in the French speaking part of Switzerland.

Returning to New York after 6 ½ years with a medical degree, a wife (Katherine) and two sons (Michael and Daniel), he set up a practice in Queens where he worked for many years. Camping and hiking with his family or friends in Harriman State Park, the Catskills and the Adirondacks or anyplace in the country where there were forests, were his greatest pleasure. Well into his 60’s he went to the Adirondacks in January to hike and camp in the High Peaks with (younger) friends. His last visit to Harriman State Park was two weeks before his death to see the fall colors. If you would like to remember Neil, sing a song that makes you happy or go on a hike with friends. If you would like to make a donation in his honor, please send it to The Adirondack Council (adirondackcouncil.org) or The Union of Concerned Scientists (uscusa.org)

The club extends condolences to Kathy, Michael, Daniel and their families. If you would like to send a note of condolence, Kathy Cohen’s address is 80-75 Tryon Place Jamaica Estates, NY 11432

We also have good news. Sue Tobiason reports that she and Art went on a “Tobiason Victory Tour” to Florida in April. The victory was Sue winning her battle against colon cancer. “Chemotherapy is not for sissies!” Neither were restrictions on travel. “For five months, I felt like I was on house arrest, as I was not allowed by my doctors to travel outside the city.” Once liberated, Sue and Art headed to the sunshine state where they celebrated with Sue’s mother and sisters.

During the summer, Tom Weir and Marianne Perseo enjoyed a lovely cruise on the Rhone River in Provence. Although the temperature was in the mid to high 90’s, Tom and Marianne had a great time.

Will Wade-Pentel and Shannon Smith had a particularly wonderful vacation. While they were in Belgium, Will proposed to Shannon who replied, “of course.” And of course, Eileen Pentel and Don Wade are thrilled about Will and Shannon’s engagement. Last, but not least, Will and Shannon’s cat (and Eileen and Don’s grandcat) turned 4 on Saturday, Nov 17th.

If you have news to share, contact me at 372 Central Park West; #15B, New York, NY 10025; 212-663-6309, ruthlipman(at)msn.com!
As the Club contemplates its 53rd (!) birthday, I thought I would pass on what I know of the Club’s founding and history. The Club was founded in 1965 by six people: Kelvin Domovs, Jerry Epstein, Bernie Klay, Ben Mandel, Suzanne Szasz, and Frank Woerner. According to both Suzanne and Jerry, the Club was founded as “Pinewoods Folk Music Club” by those six people, in September of 1965 shortly after a session at Folk Music Week at Pinewoods Camp in Buzzard’s Bay, MA. The dream of the founders was to bring some of the magic of Folk Music Week back to their lives in the New York region. The Club’s first event was a memorial for Frank Profitt, who died in 1965. The Club’s first weekend was held at Camp Freedman, in Falls Village, CT, in 1966.

At first, the Club was under the aegis of the Country Dance and Song Society, and worked out of the CDSS national office, which was on the corner of 8th Avenue and 35th St. in Manhattan. Board meetings and newsletter mailings were held at the CDSS office, and the club’s files were kept in that office. In 1987, when CDSS moved their headquarters from Manhattan to Northampton, MA, the Club was incorporated as a separate entity, the Folk Music Society of New York, or FMSNY.

Over the years, the Club has, indeed, managed to perpetuate the magic of folk song and community music making. A community of close friends has grown from the Club; many people, myself included, met their spouses through Club events; children have been born and raised as part of what has felt, to many, like a large, supportive, extended family. And, yes, sadly, we have attended funerals and memorial services for members of the community. Yet the club still welcomes new members of all ages. Through the Club’s many concerts, weekend getaways, singing get-togethers, and the cosmically wonderful TradMaD sessions, held since 2015 at Pinewoods Camp (where it all began), FMSNY continues to perpetuate the joy of sharing music with friends, old and new.

- Clarice Kjerulff
We hope your holidays are good ones and the weather cooperates. December has many musical events to help you celebrate! You can attend a workshop by Geoff Kaufman (reservations required). We will again go to Regal Heights to sing holiday songs to the residents. There will be concerts by Triboro, and Anne Price, and the FMSNY Anniversary Jam and Sing where you will make the music. You can make more music at our regular events: the Irish Music Sessions, the Sunnyside Singers club, the Maritime & Folk Song session, the Folk Open Sing, the Upper West Side Song Swap, and the Shanty Sing. Check the info on pages 2-4.

On a very sad note, Neil Cohen passed away on November 11th. We will miss him. Kathy Cohen suggests we sing a song that makes you happy or go on a hike to remember him. Check Ruth’s column for more information.

Also in this issue, is information about the Winter Weekend—how to register and how to ask for scholarships. Please don’t be shy about asking for scholarships. Your presence helps to make the weekend more fun for everyone.

See you in December/

[We are presenting this review since 2018 marks the 60th anniversary of the publication of this classic reference book.]

The Abelard Folk Song Book

review by Rabbi Eli Mallon, M.Ed., LCSW

Norman Cazden (1914-1980) was active in the musical life of America as a composer, concert pianist, piano teacher at Juilliard (1934-48), choral director at Camp Woodland (NY; closed in 1960, but survives as the New York Folklore Society), musicologist, and as a teacher at U. of Michigan, U. of Illinois (a position he lost after being blacklisted by HUAC in 1953) and U. of Maine.

“Cazden composed an operetta, music for the stage, two symphonies, two chamber music concerts, a brass suite, a suite for oboe and strings, a reverb, a string quartet, other chamber works, sonatas and pieces for the piano. In addition, he edited a number of collections of folk songs, including Folk Songs of the Catskills, Dances from the Woodland, The Abelard Folk Song book, Three Catskill Ballads for Orchestra, A Book of Nonsense Songs, American Folk Songs for Children and A Catskill Songbook.

He also wrote academic articles on topics relating to the philosophy and psychology of music.” [1]

This only barely describes his contributions.

He studied with Aaron Copland, Walter Piston and Charles Seeger (a familiar name in the folk music world).

“He was active in the intellectual and political life of the city: playing for Blitzstein shows, and helping to notate some of the early People's Songs books, published for the era’s political-folksong movement.” [2]

He was therefore part of that early folk-song movement that included Pete Seeger, continued on next page
Fred Hellerman, and many others who later became guiding lights to countless musicians and music collectors.

He collected hundreds of ballads and fiddle tunes from the Catskill region:

“[While working at Camp Woodland] Norman taught himself to play accordion in order to call square dances at camp, and to accompany the local fiddlers…the progressive philosophy of the whole project [collecting in the Catskills], gave him an innate respect for his rural partners. He would rework the Catskills material throughout his life, publishing square dance tunes with instructions (“Dances from Woodland”), ballads (“The Abelard Folksong Book”), serious compositions (“Three Catskill Ballads for Orchestra,” and its partner for concert band), the silly and the bawdy (“A Book of Nonsense Songs”)…” [3]

The Abelian Song Book” contains two sections: “Songs for Every Day” and “Songs for Saturday Night.” After each section, valuable notes and references are found. Together, the book comes to around 250 pages.

The melodies themselves might not be familiar to all, but the style of those melodies will certainly be familiar to those who listen to or perform traditional music. In some cases, these are alternative versions of otherwise familiar traditional tunes, for which Mr. Cazden also provides further alternatives he found.

As I mentioned, the book is an invaluable resource for people who play or listen to traditional music.

For this review, I did a quick check of Amazon.com, and found that there are at least 6 copies available (as of 11/7) at a fairly reasonable price.

I heartily recommend this anthology to anyone interested in American traditional music.
