SEA MUSIC CONCERTS; Sundays, Feb. 3 & Mar. 3, 3-5 PM

First Sunday Sea Music Concerts at South Street Seaport Museum, Fulton Street and the East River. Members of The New York Packet (including Frank Woerner, The Johnson Girls and Dan Milner & Bob Conroy) join featured guests. Co-sponsored with the South Street Seaport Museum. At the Museum Gallery, 209 Water Street between Fulton & Beekman. Call 212-691-7610 for directions and to confirm location. Donation is $3, pay at the door. Featured guests are:

Sunday, February 3 - Jan Christensen. Bursting out in song from behind his big 12-string guitar, Jan Christensen will deliver a varied program of ballads from his native Hudson River Valley to the Caribbean. Expect songs new and old but bring your voice to sing along with one of South Street's true favorites.

Sunday, March 3 - Sean & Deirdre Murtha.

FOLK OPEN SING; Wednesday, February 6 & March 6; 7pm

Join us on the first Wednesday of each month for an open sing. Bring your voice, instruments, friends, neighbors, children and a snack to share. At the Ethical Culture Society, 53 Prospect Park West (basement), Brooklyn (near 2nd St.). Directions: F train to 7th Ave.; Q train to 7th Ave.; 2/3 train to Grand Army Plaza. Hosted by Ethical Culture/Good Coffeehouse, Pinewoods Folk Music Club, Alison Kelley, and Frank Woerner. For info: Alison Kelley, 718-636-6341.

ROUSTABOUT; Friday, February 8th; 8pm

Roustabout has been around since 1984. The band currently comprises Jim Bollman, Lars Hanslin, Bruce Hutton, Chris Romaine, and Susan Trammell. Together they perform songs and tunes from the rural South from the 1920s and earlier. Roustabout's dedication to keeping old-time country music alive and well seems second only to the good times they have and inspire while making the music happen. If you are looking for a non-medical cure for depression, Roustabout is as close as you can get. Old-time country music, though often associated with melancholy themes, has a way of lifting spirits above the rough and tumble routines of life.

Presented with the cooperation of Polytechnic University: Admission: $10 (members, $9, Polytech students & staff free). At: Polytechnic University, Wunsch Hall, just over the Brooklyn or Manhattan bridges in Brooklyn; right off the Tillary St. exit from the BQE. (See map, page 8.) By train: A, C, F (Jay St.–Borough Hall) and M, N, R (Lawrence Street) are closest. #2, 3, 4, 5 are five min. walk (Borough Hall). All are 1st or 2nd stop in Brooklyn, 15-20 min. from midtown Manhattan. Go into the open Metrotech Commons—right across from the back of the Marriott. The student center (Wunsch Hall) is at the far end of the Commons, beyond the trees, looks like an old brown church (which it once was). Street parking is free after 7 on Jay St., Tillary St., or Flatbush Ave. Flatbush Ave 2 blocks south of Tillary Street has lots of meters which are legal after 7:00 (but tow-away before 7pm). If you park on Flatbush, walk 2 blocks West past the Chase Bank building into the open Commons; the student center (Wunsch Hall) is at the near side of the Commons, looks like an old brown church. Call for info or directions: (718) 549-1344 (after 11 AM).

OLD TIME STRING BAND GET-TOGETHER; Sunday, February 10th; 1:30 pm

Musicians are invited to play music in Park Slope, Brooklyn. Join us on the second Sunday of the month. Call David Stevens, 718-369-3319, for details.

SACRED HARP SINGING; Sunday, February 17th; 2:30pm
Co-sponsored and hosted by St. Bartholomew’s Church in Manhattan, on the 3rd Sunday of each month through June, 2:30 to 5:30pm, 109 East 50th St. We continue the colonial American tradition of lively (high-volume, up-tempo) four-part, unaccompanied gospel singing. Shaped notes, indicating fa-so-la intervals, make sight-reading easy. Instruction provided; beginners welcome! Sacred Harp hymnals available for loan or purchase. No fee; contributions collected. Free parking (Distinctive Parking, 51st between Lexington and 3rd Avenues; your church ticket is good until midnight)! Questions: Gail Harper 212-750-8977.

TRADITIONAL MUSIC OPEN MIKE; Wednesday, February 20th; 7-10 pm
Third Wednesday of each month is an acoustic open mike and jam circle (if time) night for traditional music. Sign-up starts at 6:45pm. Admission is $5 plus 2 drink minimum. At the Triad Lounge, 158 W. 72nd Street (between Broadway & Columbus Ave); info: 212-721-9382, March 20 at a new location, call Folk Fone, 212-563-4099 for info.

RIVERDALE SING; Thursday, February 21st; 7:30-10 pm
We’re starting a new sing in the Bronx one Thursday a month! Bring instruments, voices, and songs to share. GOSPEL & SACRED HARP SING; Sunday, February 24th; 3PM
Join us for singing gospel, plus songs from the Sacred Harp book. This is 4-part harmony sung from written music, so you should be able to carry a tune; sight-singing helpful but not required. Bring food for a potluck supper (host is supplying drinks). At the home of Lenore Greenberg, 120 Boerum Place, #1J, Brooklyn (718-403-0347). (Allergic folks note: cat in residence) Subways: “F” or “G” train to Bergen St. (rear of train from Manhattan or Queens). Do not cross Smith Street; walk one block on Bergen to Boerym. Or #1, 2, or 4 to Borough Hall; walk south on Court St. around 8 blocks; turn left on Dean. Other info: Isabel, 212-866-2029.

We invite you to check out our new Board of Directors and the officers. We are fortunate that everyone has decided to remain, and we welcome Alice Backer back onto the board. We still have some openings available, and we have a special need for a treasurer (see blurb in this newsletter). If you are interested in being treasurer or in joining the board, call Joy Bennett, our President. We’d love to have you.

February starts out with our winter weekend. If you didn’t get a chance to come, it’s not too soon to think about our Spring weekend. We also have our concert with Roust-about as well as our Sea Music concert. Don’t forget about our Folk Open Sing, the Old-time String Band Get-together, the Sunnyside Song Circle, the Riverdale Sing, the Gospel and Sacred Harp Sing and the Sacred Harp Singing and the Traditional Music Open Mike and Folk Music Jam. Have you noticed that there are more chances lately to make your own music throughout the four boroughs? We haven’t had one in Staten Island yet, but I wouldn’t be surprised if someone starts one there as well. It’s a real sign that folk music is alive and well.

Special thanks go to the volunteers who help to put out the newsletter each month and ensure that you get the word about what’s going on in the club and in events throughout the city. They could always use more help. For the January Newsletter thank you to: Isabel Goldstein, Brenda Peña, Eileen Pentel, Anne Price, Wayne Price, and Morey Weisman. Won’t you join us on Wednesday February 27th and help mail out the March newsletter? (See page 3 for details.)

PINEWOODS CLUB NEEDS A NEW TREASURER.

We are seeking a competent, organized, and responsible member of the Club to take over the critically important position of Treasurer. It is a position without which the Club cannot function. Our current Treasurer, Helen Pinto, will be moving away from New York in the next few months. The Club’s financial record keeping is all computerized, and thus the entering of information and reporting is quite easy. There is abundant help available as needed from current members of the Board who know the system. Once a year the Treasurer prepares our reporting form to the IRS. This is a very simple form, since we are a non-profit and pay no taxes. The Treasurer receives checks from Club functions, makes deposits, and writes checks to pay bills. Helen will be happy to work with an incoming person to familiarize him/her with the system.

The Treasurer is a member of the Board of Directors and attends the monthly meeting. Our by-laws allow the board of directors to vote additional members of the board to any vacant spots. Since we currently have open positions on the board, anyone interested in being treasurer can be voted onto the board.

If you are such an organized and responsible person, and you can use a computer, and if you would like to really help out the Club with a major need, please consider talking to us about this office. You can get more information by calling the Finance Committee convener, Jerry Epstein, at (718) 429-3437, or Helen directly for more information on how the position actually works at (718) 426-5484. The Club is absolutely dependent on the help of those members who can contribute their time to keep it going. Think about it.

MOREY WEISMAN writes an annual holiday greetings “newsletter” that he sends out in December. This one was 10 pages long. Morey has a way with words. Here are a few excerpts:

On music: “My late wife and I were members of a recreation group. The refrain of a folk song [written by Malvena Reynolds -Ed] heard by our children at group functions resounds:

‘Love is something, if you give it away….
Give it away…Give it away….
Love is something, if you give it away,
You end up having more.’

Here’s one of Morey’s poems:

Ode to An Octogenarian Now Plus Five

YO!
Made it to 85!
I did arrive
Very much alive
Mishaps - no hives
Nothing contrived
No nose dive
Plenty of drive
Able to survive
Munch on endive
Like a native
Helps won thrive
Plan to survive
Ready to jive
With a Hi-5
Unto age 105?
YO!

My apologies to BOB WITTE. Bob wrote to me in October from Maine, where he now lives. I saved the letter but somehow overlooked it when it was time to write the folk process column. I’m really sorry, Bob. I just came across it. Bob was thinking about us on September 11th. Here is a poem that he wrote on September 12th:

In my fields, blue asters bespeak fall’s coming.
In the City, gray ash flowers billow down.
Can I begin to comprehend Hiroshima
Beneath this clear blue sky?

Bob writes, “the important thing is to tell my friends is that I miss them, though I love the life of a retiree, and one of these days I’ll pay them all a visit when I’m able to travel.” He’s been busy growing an impressive garden up in Maine. He froze about 40 pounds of home grown string beans as well as peas and corn-on-the-cob. And he makes blueberry jam and apple butter as well as French-Canadian crepes called “ployes” which are delicious with spicy apple butter. In addition, there is contra-dancing and folk music in the area. Regrettably, Bob missed the fall weekend because a shingles condition makes it difficult for him to drive long distances.

Please send in news about YOU to me at 372 Central Park West, New York, NY 10025; 212-663-6309.
The delay in the writing of this review is in no way a reflection of my enormous enjoyment of this performance of The Tamburitzans! They are an extremely talented group of 35 young singers, dancers, and instrumentalists who perform the music and dance of Central and Eastern Europe. The “Tammies”, as they are affectionately known, are students from Duquesne University located in Pittsburgh, PA. They come from all over the U.S. and Canada, and from Central and Eastern European countries as well.

According to background information distributed with the concert program, “most of their training takes place at a three-and-a half week ‘summer camp’ before the beginning of the school year.” It is hard to believe that the exquisite dancing and excellent musicianship of the Tammies is acquired simply through these three-and-a-half weeks of training! (The program did point out that they maintain “a rigorous rehearsal and performance schedule, as well as a full academic program throughout the year!”)

You’ve got to see (and hear) this group to experience their explosive excitement and energy, their powerful, yet graceful movement, the brilliant colors and details of their authentic costumes, the variety of their traditional instruments, their melodious voices, and stunning musicianship! It’s impossible to sit motionless in your seat during the performance.

The Tamburitzans will be returning to NYC’s Fashion Institute of Technology for their next annual performance on Saturday, October 26, 2002 at 8 PM. Don’t miss what I’m sure will be another unforgettable event! Tickets will be available from (1) American Hungarian Folklore Centrum, PO Box 262, Bogota, NJ 07603; Tel: 201-836-4869; fax: 201-836-1590; email: magyar@magyar.org; (2) Molnar Travel Agency, 245 E 81 St., NYC 10028; Tel: 212-535-3681; (3) Blue Danube Hungarian Book Store, 225 E 83 St, NYC 10028; Tel: 212-794-7099. For additional info on their recordings, videos, other area performances, etc, contact The Tamburitzans of Duquesne University, 1801 Blvd of the Allies, Pittsburgh, PA 15219-5992; Tel 412-396-5185, Fax 412-396-5583 or their web site, www.duq.edu/Tamburitzans

Book Review: A Book of Party Songs by Oscar Brand

Oscar Brand has been around all of our lives — all those albums, books, documentaries, etc — and of course the Folksong Festival on radio since 1945! I’m told he’s received just about every award except (ironically) an “Oscar.” He’s fun to have around — I fondly remember his Camp Freedman visit on a Club weekend some years ago — but in between it’s handy to have all those great recordings, and more.

As I enjoy saying, “Good taste is timeless, but a good time can be tasteless.” Oscar does sing a lot of fine, respectable songs, for which this unique book, his personal collection, is a savory antidote. It’s an attractive large-format lie-flat illustrated volume that includes 52 classic racy songs, with lively commentary by Oscar. There are many favorites — “Seven Old Ladies Locked in the Lavat’ry”; “No Hips at All”; “The Money Rolls In”; “Bell Bottomed Trousers”; “Hang Too Low”; “The Hermit”; “Indian Maid”; “Roll Your Leg Over”; “Sweet Violets”; and on and on, songs your mother may have known but probably didn’t teach you. Many are anonymous, and some are by “folks” like Kipling, Ogden Nash, Ben Franklin, and William O. Douglas.

Many of the songs are also available on his tapes and CDs, some more innocent than the book, some even more bawdy. For orders and info: Oscar Brand, Box 1362, Manhasset, NY 11030 or at www.OSCARBRAND.com. The book is $30 plus $4 shipping. For any questions you might have on his music, his other books, or anything else, you can email him at Oscrbrand@aol.com (and yes, there’s no ‘a’ in the email “Oscr”).
