SEA MUSIC CONCERTS; Tuesdays, 6-8pm
June 4, June 11, June 18, June 25, July 2, etc.

Tue, June 4 - Anything But The Sea concert with The New York Packet. If you don’t think you like sea shanties, this is the week to come to South Street. New York’s favorite sea music group will sing everything from blues to ballads to Woody Guthrie with not a sea song in sight or sound!

June 11, Louis Killen - One of Lou’s last American concerts before he moves back to England... for good! Lou sang with Ewan MacColl and with The Clancy Brothers and is universally regarded as one of the greatest living ballad singers.

June 25, Dan Milner & Bob Conroy - Leaders of the Irish-American song revival. Dublin’s Sunday Tribune newspaper called their singing "passionate" and Dirty Linen magazine called their songs "fascinating documents." Banjo, guitar and a bit of button box accordion.

July 2 - Robbie Wedeen - One of Pinewoods’ favorite singing members in a program of maritime songs. Robbie’s voice is sweet yet knowing and her guitar accompaniment is just perfect.

July 9 - Pat Mangan, a brilliant Irish-American fiddler

FOLK OPEN SING; Wednesdays, June 5 & July 3; 7pm

Join us on the first Wednesday of each month for an open sing. Bring your voice, instruments, friends, neighbors, children and a snack to share. At the Ethical Culture Society, 53 Prospect Park West (basement), Brooklyn (near 2nd St.). Directions: F train to 7th Ave.; Q train to 7th Ave.; 2/3 train to Grand Army Plaza. PRE-MYSTIC FESTIVAL IRISH CONCERT; Thursday, June 6th; 8 pm

Warp 4 (Ireland’s premier chantey group) was formed in the early 1990s by Pat Sheridan from Cork. After several line-up changes the group honored a long time commitment to veteran Irish folk singer Liam Clancy to record two albums with him in time for the Dublin Cutty Sark Tall Ships Festival in the summer of 1999. Warp Four officially split up at the end of 1999, but the members Niall Fennell and Pat Sheridan occasionally met up for a singing session. Now they are back together with a new crew and they are headed for the Mystic (CT) Sea Music Festival. En route they will do this New York Pinewoods Series Concert.
From California to Cape Breton, from Glasgow to Galway, and from London to Las Vegas, Athena O Lochlainn is recognized as a true master of the Celtic fiddle. A student of such fiddling luminaries as Aly Bain, Mairead Ni Mhaonaigh, and Alasdair Frasier, Athena won the Junior National Scottish Fiddling Championship three years in a row. She later toured with the Sharon Shannon Band, played fiddle for the Las Vegas production of The Lord of the Dance, and was the featured fiddler in the original Broadway production of Riverdance. For this concert, Athena will perform her tunes and songs along with her husband Fionn O Lochlainn. Fionn is an accomplished bass player who has toured or recorded with a diverse array of artists, including Donal Lunny, Billy Bragg, Dan Ar Braz, Jimmy Nail, and Des’ree.

At the Advent Lutheran Church, Broadway at 93rd St., Manhattan. FREE to NYFMC members; $18 general public; $15 CDNY members; $10 seniors & full-time students; $6 children under 12.

The Folk Process
by Ruth Lipman

NANCY KENNESS now has an 11 pound mini, long-haired dachshund named TEDDY. She considers him to be her “hairy child.” Those of us who have or have had animals, well understand this feeling. Teddy has endeared himself to Nancy’s physical therapy clients and sometimes assists at PT sessions.

I encountered IRENE ANDERSON, NANCY KENESS AND EVY MAYER in the cafeteria of the Graduate Center (located in the old B. Altman’s building). So, we all had a nice chat. They were enrolled in an eight-week course about Broadway Musicals at GC/CUNY. Irene told me that she is doing free lance computer consulting work. The Graduate Center seems to draw other Pinewoods people. On another day, I ran into CLARICE KJERULFF. She’s taking a writing course there. I’m enrolled in the French Ph.D. program, so I’m there frequently.

ABE and GERT GERSHOWITZ recently moved from Queens to Manhattan. Best of luck in your new place, Abe and Gert. Their great-grandchild, JARED, celebrated his 4th birthday in May. Jared has acquired an expertise in identifying different types of construction trucks. This is not his only talent. Apparently he has inherited Abe’s musical gifts. During Passover, Jared sang four verses of “Dayenu” over the telephone to Abe and Gert. He was in tune! (“Dayenu” is a song that is sung at the Passover seder. The Hebrew word, “dayenu”, means “enough” in English...i.e. “It would have been enough if he had sung one verse.”) Abe and Gert gave their piano to Jared’s family as well as lots of song books. Jared is thrilled; he said, “Not only is the piano important, but all the song books Grandpa sent me are even better!”

I am saddened to report the death of MURRAY CARTAN in April. Murray was a long-time member of the club. We will all miss him. The club extends sincere condolences to his wife, Edith and family.

If you have news to share, please contact me at 372 Central Park West, #15B, New York, NY 10025; 212-663-6309.

Murray Cartan

It is with a heavy and saddened heart that I share the news that Murray Cartan passed away on April 29th. Club members will remember Murray and his dear wife, Edith, from Bernie Klay weekends and many a Pinewoods Winter Weekend. Murray loved to sing harmony and had a wealth of knowledge of folk music. He always had some good words, a story, a remembrance, an anecdote to share with old friends and new acquaintances alike. In these latter years, how often I called him when my computer was acting up. Murray was a maven on the Mac computer and generously gave of his time and expertise to anyone who needed assistance. In the early 1990s, Murray, Manny Krevat and I performed as the trio Aged In The Wood. One of our signature songs was Remember Me.

Murray was a dear friend. He touched the hearts of many who knew him. He will be remembered and will live on in our hearts and our thoughts. To borrow a thought from a popular folksong …… If when we die, we go somewhere, I bet you a dollar he’s a harmonizin’ there.

From the Editor
Eileen Pentel

It is hard to believe that June is here and summer is quickly approaching. This month is packed full with series concerts, sings and sea chanteys. Look for the weekly Sea Music Concerts, with Louis Killen on June 11. We have the Sacred Harp singing, the Folk Open Sing, the Sunnyside and Riverdale Sings, the Traditional Music Open Mike & Folk Music Jam, and the Old Time String Band Get-together.

Warp 4 and Athena & Finn O Lochlann is our series concert at the Advent Lutheran Church. The Church, by the way, is raising money in order to paint their sanctuary (where we hold our concerts). They need to raise $23,500 by the end of July. See their ad on page 21 for the address.

Thank you to the volunteers who help to put out the newsletter each month and ensure that you get the word about what’s going on in the club and in events throughout the city. They could always use more help. The May Newsletter again had to be postponed due to a printing delay. Thanks and apologies to: Ruth Block and Al Cadwallader who came to the office and found the mailing had been cancelled and thanks to Isabel Goldstein who went to the office and also made calls to tell people what was up. It was held a few days later at the Wade-Pentel’s: Thanks to volunteers Jerry Epstein, Clarice Kjerulf, Brenda Peña, Eileen Pentel, Don Wade, and Morey Weisman, and to Isabel Goldstein who organized the mailing but could not attend. Won’t you join us and help mail out the next newsletter on Monday, July 1? (See page 3).

Office Space Needed

The Club is looking for office space more appropriate than our current office. We need space for a desk (with our computer and phone), file cabinet and 2 storage cabinets in a place that is accessible evenings, nights and weekends so our volunteers can get there after their “day jobs. We also need access to an area that we can use 2 evenings a month for our board meetings (20 people) and our newsletter mailings. We’re looking for a Manhattan location with no cats; something shared with another nonprofit might be ideal. This is a continuing search; if you have any ideas, contact Don Wade, 718-426-8555 or e-mail <WadeD@ncc.edu>.
