JAMES LEVA; Thursday, Aug 1st; 8 pm

Master fiddler, singer, banjo player in the old time Southern mountain tradition. James learned from the great masters of the mountain tradition, including Tommy Jarrell and Fred Cockerham. This is a unique opportunity to hear the real thing. James has performed at countless concerts, and festivals, he has taught at a variety of folk music camps, including Pinewoods. He has learned Appalachian traditions the hard way, through apprenticeships with traditional musicians and years of performance in Kentucky, Virginia, North Carolina and other homes of unbroken mountain tradition, and performs the old songs as compellingly as anyone. Presented with the cooperation of Polytechnic University: Admission: $13 (members, $10, Polytech students free).

At: Polytechnic University, Wunsch Hall, just over the Brooklyn or Manhattan bridges in Brooklyn; right off the Tillary St. exit from the BQE. (See map, page 10.) By train: A, C, F (Jay St.–Borough Hall) and M, N, R (Lawrence Street) are closest. #2, 3, 4, 5 are five min. walk (Borough Hall). All are 1st or 2nd stop in Brooklyn, 15-20 min. from midtown Manhattan. Go into the open Metrotech Commons—right across from the Marriott. The student center (Wunsch Hall) is at the far end of the Commons, beyond the trees, looks like an old brown church (which it was). Street parking is free after 7 on Jay St., Tillary St., or Flatbush Ave. Flatbush Ave 2 blocks south of Tillary Street has lots of meters which are legal after 7 pm (but tow-away before). If you park on Flatbush, walk into the commons 2 blocks West past the Chase Bank building. The Bank will be on your left, and a gray wooden wall (around a construction site) will be on your immediate right. Turn right at the corner of the wall and continue until it ends. The student center will be right there. Call for info: (718) 549-1344 (after 11 AM).

Weekend Scholarships Available

Applications are now being accepted to the FALL weekend for the George Parker Scholarship, the Mayer Scholarship and the Lil Appel Scholarship. These funds provide full scholarships to individuals who could not otherwise attend and who have a strong interest in folk music, singing, and/or instrumental playing.

TO APPLY: Please tell us in a letter why you feel you qualify for a scholarship; the most important considerations are financial need and interest in folk music. The candidates will be considered and notified by mail.

Please send your letter by October 1st to:

Scholarship Funds

In an effort to make our weekends available to more members there are now several scholarship funds set up:

George Parker Scholarship - provides one full scholarship per weekend to a club member otherwise unable to attend. The fund was established in memoriam by George’s parents, the New York Pinewoods Folk Music Club, and other contributors. George was a young man and a friend of folk music who greatly enjoyed our weekends.

Charles & Ilse Mayer Scholarship Fund - provides one full scholarship for each of the fall, winter, and spring weekends each year. This fund was set up in memoriam by board member Evy and Ilse Mayer in honor of Evy’s father Charles Mayer.

Welcome to our July-August summer issue. This is a good issue to keep as a reference for all of the fun happenings this summer, including festivals and Folk Music Week at Pinewoods Camp in Massachusetts. The Sea Music Concerts will continue weekly throughout the summer. There are open sings, string band get-togethers, and even a Swim and Sing party. What a great way to spend the summer.

Our next newsletter issue will be in September. Don’t forget to sign up for the Fall Weekend. It’s not too early for reserving your space or for applying for the working scholarships as well as the Parker, Mayer and Appel Scholarships.

Thank you to the volunteers who help to put out the newsletter each month and ensure that you get the word about what’s going on in the club and in events throughout the city. They could always use more help. For the June Newsletter thank you to: Kathy Cohen, Isabel Goldstein, Rosanne Levitt, Anne Price, Donald Stumpf, Marcus Tieman, Morey Weisman, and Don Wade who delivered the pages from the printer. Won’t you join us on Thursday September 5 and help mail out the next newsletter? (See page 3 for details.)

Here are some club happenings as reported in the July-August, 1972 newsletter:

• Lew Hollander’s new album, “Troublin’ Times,” was the subject of a front-page article in his hometown paper.

• Nick Hodsdon held a folk mass service in which the Padstow May song was staged featuring Don Wade as the horse and Maddy DeLeon as the teaser (ritual characters).

• The Bluegrass Club of New York was formed. Kathy Kaplan was their newsletter editor.

• The National Park Service, presenting “July 4th in old New York,” offered folk singing by Richie and Michele Heller, Lorre Wyatt, Jerry Epstein, and Estelle Wade.

• The National Park Service also sponsored concerts at Federal Hall. Club members who performed were Alan Friend, Lew Hollander, Maddy DeLeon, Bud Weiss, David Jones, Jerry Epstein, and Lorre Wyatt.

• Singing parties were held at the homes of Debby McClatchy and Evelyn and Milton Heimlich.

• Despite the arrival of Hurricane Agnes, Evelyne Beers and Roberts and Barrand made it down to the seaport for their concert.

• The club shared sponsorship with the Folklore Center in presenting Mark Spoelstra in concert.

Folk music around town included: Sam Chatmon (Folklore Center), Aly Bain (FC), Lou Killen (seaport), Ruth Brown (seaport), Joe Heaney (seaport), Oscar Brand and Jean Ritchie (seaport), J. F. Murphy and Salt (seaport), Oscar Brand (Tibbetts Brook Park), Arlo Guthrie/Harry Chapin (Central Park), Tom Rush/David Blue/Pamela Pollard (CP), James Lang/Ruth Copeland/David Bromberg (CP), Richie Havens/Goose Creek Symphony (CP), Balfa Freres (Washington Square Methodist Church) Strange Creek Singers (NYU).

FINALLY, the monumental and totally wonderful collection of Bob Blue’s greatest songs. Don’t even think of not owning this spectacular double CD — 2 discs, 35 songs, almost two hours worth. In addition to Bob, singers (in alphabetical order) also include Joanne Hammil, Phil Hoose, Charlie King, Sally Rogers, Jane Sapp, Pete Seeger, Kim Wallach, and many, many more of his friends.

The range is enormous, witty and thought-provoking songs for both adults and kids: classics like “The Ballad of Erica Levine”; the irrepressible Jackson Gillman doing Bob’s exhilarating Mozart tour de force (his words to Eine Kleine Nachtmusik); the actually thrilling “Eensy Weensy Spider”, allegorically linked to the raising of the Mary Ellen Carter; the very clever “Their Way” (a variation of Paul Anka’s “My Way”); The touching, “When the End Came”; the charming “Pigs”, juxtaposed against the lovely music of Beethoven’s Pathétique Sonata; jazzy numbers like the “Pineapple Rag” (music by Scott Joplin); some very moving songs sung by young people — “Dear Mr. President” and the unforgettable “Courage”. And on and on. Remarkable songs by a remarkable man; yes, a must-have album.

The double CD set is just $25 plus $2 shipping. Lyrics are included, plus Bob’s comments. The proceeds do help Bob in his valiant struggle with MS, so any additional amount would always be appreciated. Contact: Bob Blue, 170 E. Hadley Rd, Amherst, MA 01002; 413-256-8784 (after 1pm); <bblue@k12.nsm.umass.edu>.

Also available, in case you’re interested — the Mister Blue Songbook (15 plus 1.50); the heartwarming What Matters documentary video (25 plus 1.50); and his two audio tapes, Their Way and Starting Small (9 plus 1.50 each). For multiple or combined orders, the shipping cost is negotiable. In addition, he has two books of insightful essays; his essays are also accessible, free, by periodic email.

One of our favorite people; do join the crowd.

—Sol Weber

Suzanne Szasz Shorr Scholarship - a new fund which, when operational, will provide a scholarship to CDSS Folk Music Week at Pinewoods Camp.

You may make a fully tax-deductible contribution in any amount to any of the funds above by sending a check payable to “Folk Music Society of New York” (noted with the name of the scholarship memorial) to our office, 450 Seventh Ave. #972, New York, NY 10123-0101. To establish a new named fund in honor of or in memoriam to a loved one, please contact any of our current board members (see list in this newsletter).

The Lil Appel Scholarship is an independent fund which provides scholarship support for the spring and fall weekends to an individual who has a strong interest in folk music, singing, and/or instrumental playing. This fund is newly established by a loving group of regulars in memoriam to Lil’s 35+ years of bi-weekly Friday night sings, “a breeding and feeding ground for many of today’s accomplished singers and musicians.” Contributors of $25 or more will receive a copy of the 64 page “I Remember Lil” book of loving remembrances. For information, or to contribute, contact Alice Backer at (914) 993-0618 or Drew Smith at (201) 444-2833.

Folk Music Week at Pinewoods: July 20 - 27, 2002

[There is still some space left at Folk Music Week at Pinewoods Camp, so we are reprinting this article which originally ran this April. We’ll be there and we urge you all to consider joining us for a wonderful week of music. -Ed.]

The magic and enjoyment of Pinewoods Camp Folk Music Week at Pinewoods Camp, Plymouth, Mass. (from which the Club takes its name) is hard to convey in the printed word. Printed below is an excerpt from the descriptive brochure. You can get the brochure on this and other weeks at the CDSS web site <http://www.cdss.org> or navigate directly to the Folk Music week page at: <http://www.cdss.org/programs/2002/pw-folk-music.html>. You can call CDSS at 413-268-7426 for a copy.

The spirit and good humor of a Newfoundland house party; the joy and energy of jug band music; traditions from Native America; song makers and singers of New England and the Maritimes; choral singing from the U.S. and around the world; some of the best dulcimer playing to be found anywhere; group singing with the founders of the Golden Ring; great dancing — all this and more is waiting for you at Pinewoods Folk Music Week 2002.

Everyone is welcome to take a place in a community where the love of traditional song and dance unites Pinewoods newcomers and old-timers. There is a definite emphasis this year on traditions of the Northeast (New England and the Atlantic Provinces). Expand your repertoire and learn about traditional singers and songs from Sandy Ives, scholar, raconteur, and dean of folklorists of Northeastern North America. Get to know Anita Best, Tobias and Gerald Pearson, and Baxter Wareham, wonderful singers from Newfoundland, who carry on a unique tradition of song and story. Learn songs, dances, and other Native American traditions from Marge Bruchac a storyteller and tradition-bearer of Missisquoi Abenaki heritage.

Sandy and Caroline Paton bring a wealth of song from their unique history of performing, recording, and collecting the best in traditional and contemporary music. Tom Spiers of Aberdeen brings a wealth of song and a deep knowledge of Scottish Traditional Music. Andy Cohen is one of the best guitar players going and a font of knowledge about the blues and American traditional music in general. Larkin Bryant is one of the most respected Appalachian dulcimer players and teachers alive.

Seth Houston will lead choral singing of American and international music. Seth is an expert at getting people to make beautiful music together and his chorus will not require music-reading skills.

Music for dancing will be provided by Wild Goose Nation, Craig Edwards, Dirck Westervelt, and Mike Fischman. A trio known throughout New England not only for playing contras and squares, but also for Cajun and swing. Craig is also a member of the Mystic Seaport Shanty Crew and directs the annual Mystic Sea Music Festival.

Office Space Needed

The Club is looking for office space more appropriate than our current office. We need space for a desk (with our computer and phone), file cabinet and 2 storage cabinets in a place that is accessible evenings, nights and weekends so our volunteers can get there after their "day jobs." We also need access to an area that we can use 2 evenings a month for our board meetings (20 people) and our newsletter mailings. We're looking for a Manhattan location with no cats; something shared with another nonprofit might be ideal. This is a continuing search; if you have any ideas, contact Don Wade, 718-426-8555 or e-mail <WadeD@ncc.edu>.
