With 20 year experience as a performer, Kinloch Nelson draws from a repertoire of nearly 300 songs and tunes gathered from his travels through the USA, Canada, South America, Ireland, and Great Britain. The New York Pinewoods Folk Music Club is proud to present him in this Folk Off-Broadway concert. Expect him to enhance this performance with some fine singing and story-telling. Go into the open Metrotech Commons—right across from the Marriott. The student center (Wunsch Hall) is at the far end of the Commons, beyond the trees, looks like an old brown church (which it was); next to a new building under construction. Street parking is free after 7 on Jay St., Tillary St., or Flatbush Ave. Flatbush Ave 2 blocks south of Tillary Street has lots of meters which are legal after 7 pm (but tow-away before). If you park on Flatbush, walk into the commons 2 blocks West past the Chase Bank building. The Bank will be on your left, and a new building will be on your immediate right. Turn right at the corner of the new building and continue to the next building. That is the student center. See map, p. 10 Info: (718) 549-1344 (after 11 AM).

E-Mail?

Dear members: E mail is a great way for us to get in touch with you, and for you to get in touch with us. Many of you have given us your e-mail addresses, but many have not.
If you would like to be on the club’s e-mail address list, please send a message to nypinewood@aol.com. Also, if you think you gave us your e mail address but you haven’t gotten any messages, maybe it was illegible or we got it wrong for some reason.
If so, send it to us again on line. E-mail addresses of board members are also listed in this newsletter. Let us hear from you.
November will be a very exciting month. Jean Ritchie and Oscar Brand will be performing for us. Their concert was originally scheduled for September. However we had to delay it because, on that scheduled night, Jean received the Bess Lomax Hawes National Heritage Fellowship, which, as described by Newsday, recognizes a lifetime contribution to the arts and soul of America. We’ve always known that Jean was a treasure, and we’re happy to know that everyone else realizes it as well. We also treasure Oscar, who has made many major contributions to folk music. We know that this will be a special concert.

November also brings us the Sea Music concert and a concert by Kinloch Nelson as well as the song circles in Sunnyside and Riverdale and the Sacred Harp Singing. This month also brings us the Fall Fling, which we do jointly with CDNY.

The Winter Weekend is coming up, and you can sign up now as well. Holiday Hills closed, forcing us to look for a new location. We’re looking forward to going to the Warwick Conference Center. Come and check it out with us. Don’t forget that scholarships and weekend jobs are available for this weekend. Look for details elsewhere in this issue.

Another wonderful and exciting activity is the Executive Board Meeting. You too can be part of this hard working and fun loving group. All you have to do is contact Joy Bennett and let her know that you would like to run for the Board. November is the month when we take nominations for next year’s Board, and we need you!! Contact the President, Joy Bennett (718)575-1906 if you would like to run for the Board next year.

The newsletter mailing is also a fun loving event, and volunteers are always welcome. Thank you to Don Wade for delivering the newsletter a day early last month so that the volunteers could arrive early and Isabel could attend a friend’s retirement party. Apologies to anyone who might have arrived later and found everyone gone. Thank you to the volunteers who help to put out the newsletter each month and ensure that you get the word about what’s going on in the club and in events throughout the city. They can always use more help. For the October newsletter thank you to: Millicent Browne, Isabel Goldstein, Suzanne Gotlieb, Brenda Pena, Anne Price, and Don Wade who delivered the pages from the printer the previous day. Won’t you join us on Tuesday, December 3 and help mail out the next newsletter? (See page 3 for details.)

Hope everyone is enjoying the fall foliage. I’m writing this before the fall weekend which will have come and gone by the time the newsletter is published. No doubt it was a combination of gorgeous scenery and glorious sounds.

We have some good news this month.

SONIA SAVIG and ROBERT CONSTANTINE were married on July 4th at Sonia’s family cabin in Indian Hills, Colorado. The event was scheduled to coincide with Sonia’s family reunion and her 75th birthday celebration. Relatives came from all over, including Sonia’s nephew, who is a missionary in Kazakhstan. He officiated at the wedding ceremony. Best wishes for joy, good health and good music to the happy couple.

There is a central gathering room with fireplace and several other smaller gathering areas suitable for a plethora of informal music making. (Which is what this weekend is all about!) Summary Lists of Ideas and Opinions at 5/26/02 Membership Meeting

[Editor’s note: at the Spring Weekend we held a meeting to brainstorm ideas to help the club grow and continue. We would love hear from you as well. To send comments or find out about the committee working on this, contact the editor, Eileen Pentel, 35-41 72 St, Jackson Heights, NY 11372; 718-672-6399.]

Main Idea: Whatever must be done will require willing volunteers to pursue the projects. People are needed to serve on the Board, but people don’t have to be on the Board to pitch in and follow through on vital efforts.

Bringing in More Money

Volunteer! Participate!
Increase membership (See separate list of ideas)
Increase dues excepting Sr.Cit. & Low Inc. (This idea was generally accepted.)
Charge low amount or half price for some or all of now-free-to-members concerts (supported by many speakers, except one)
Put on fund raising activities and solicit contributions from friends and members who can afford to help
Raise ad rates in Newsletter
Members check employers for matching grants
Increase weekend fees (suggested by only one person)

Saving Money

Volunteer! Participate!
Decrease number of free-to-members concerts; use vouchers so members can choose
Giving up office (It’s a necessity, especially for getting out Newsletter.)
Finding cheaper office space (doesn’t exist)
Combine with other organizations for concerts/publicity

Increasing Membership & Publicity

Volunteer! Participate!
Offer members option of Internet Newsletter
Keep looking to share another non-profit’s office space
Be more welcoming to new members
Follow up with “lost” members
Keep up attractive website
Increase web links and presence on search engines
Note tax deduction on membership form (it is noted)
Increase coverage/ads in community & corporate newspapers/letters
Increase contact at/with college campuses
Have “1st Concert Free” offers for non-members
Have free concerts where there will be many people
Make personal efforts to recruit other people/friends, distribute Newsletters
Have attractive, eye-catching flyer & wallet card

Judged Impractical or Unfeasible:
Putting out Newsletter less frequently (We don’t have sufficient notice for events.)
Getting grants(enormous work; killer when lost)
Weekend Scholarships Available

Applications are now being accepted to the Winter weekend for the Mayer and Parker Scholarships. These funds provide a full scholarship to individuals who could not otherwise attend and who have a strong interest in folk music, singing, and/or instrumental playing.

TO APPLY: Please tell us in a letter why you feel you qualify for the scholarship. The most important considerations are financial need and interest in folk music. The candidates will be considered and notified by mail.

SHEILA EWALL had a hectic summer that included the closing down of her previous job site in June and subsequent transfer to a new job site in July. She managed to work in some summer fun, however, with some short trips out to Long Island. Her biggest piece of news, however, came after the summer when she took the "buy out" from her job and retired on October 2nd. Congratulations Sheila!

EILEEN PENTEL also retired from her job. She took the buy out offer as well. There may be more news later. Congratulations Eileen!

If you have news to share, please contact me at 372 Central Park West, New York, NY 10025; 212-663-6309.

Jean Ritchie & Oscar Brand
with Jon Pickow

For more than half a century Jean Ritchie and Oscar Brand have each been traveling the world, singing traditional songs as well as writing and performing their own. Jean comes originally from Kentucky, Oscar comes originally from Manitoba, and both now live on Long Island where they have developed a special kinship with the New York Pinewoods Folk Music Club. It is a rare honor for us to present them both in a single NY Pinewoods Series Concert. Jon Pickow, Jean Ritchie’s son, will join them.
