MARTYN WINDHAM-READ; Friday October 3; 8 PM
English by birth, Martyn Wyndham-Read first developed his great interest in the folk songs of the Outback when he went to Australia in the early 1960s. While working there on a South Australian sheep station, Martyn gained first hand experience of life as a bush worker, and at the same time fell in love with Australia and its folk music. During his subsequent travels, he spent much of his time seeking out and learning old songs directly from drovers, cane cutters, and other bush workers. As the folk song revival gathered pace in Australia, Martyn found himself singing these songs to audiences all across the Australian continent, and after seven years down under, he returned to England where he performed these songs to appreciative British audiences. New York Pinewoods Folk Music Club is delighted to welcome Martyn Wyndham-Read to our city for this intimate house concert. General admission: $13. NY Pinewoods members: $10. Reservations required--space is limited. At an Upper West Side location (near Lincoln Center); for information, reservations, and exact location, please call Evy Mayer at 1-718-549-1344 after 11 AM.

Tom Spiers was born in Aberdeen, on the northeast coast of Scotland. His mother’s family were all singers, whose repertoires consisted mainly of popular Scottish songs, and Tom was brought up in an extended family environment where singing was the norm. Over the years he developed a distinctive style where the fiddle accompaniment became a natural extension of the song. As one critic put it, "Tom has mastered the technique of singing to his own fiddle accompaniment, to the detriment of neither skill". General admission: $13. NY Pinewoods members: $10. Reservations are suggested. At the home of Caroly Wilcox and Frank Misiurski, 143 W. 20th St. #9S (between 6th and 7th Aves). (Do not park on 20th St. Cars towed after 10 PM.) From the Editor

Eileen Pentel

October is a busy month for us. For our member series concert, we have Flapjack. Our other concerts include Martyn Wyndham-Read (call for reservations), Tom Spiers, and the Sea Music concert—this month Stout will appear. We also have our regular sings—the ones in Riverdale, and Brooklyn, and the Sacred Harp Singing, and our Halloween Singing Party, which actually falls on Halloween!!

October also brings our Fall Weekend. As I write this column, there are only a few spaces left. If you are interested, call right away to see if there is still room. The music will be great, and the fall colors should be in all their glory!

On a sadder note, there will be a memorial service for one of our members, Carole Rose Livingston. Details are on page 22.

Thank you also to the volunteers who help to put out the newsletter each month and ensure that you get the word about what’s going on in the club and in events throughout the city. They could always use more help. For the September Newsletter thank you to: Herb Feuerlicht, Isabel Goldstein, Eileen Pentel, Mariann Perseo, Anne Price, Marilyn Schwartz, Wille Wade-Pentel, and Don Wade who also delivered the pages from the printer. Won’t you join us on Thursday, October 30th and help mail out the next newsletter? (See page 3 for details.)

Eisteddfod — the cup runneth over

The 2003 Eisteddfod Festival of Traditional Music was an awesome, inspiring event with just one problem: there were so many terrific things going on at once that you had to make no end of painful choices. What to do: hear Oscar Brand hold forth on “Woody, Leadbelly, Dylan, & Me” or listen to John Roberts and Tony Barrand in a harmony workshop with the Kossoy Sisters and Orrin Star’s Sultans of String? Of course, if you did either one of these, you’d miss some amazing Hungarian music (trumpet fiddle, anyone?) from the Eletfa Ensemble.

It was like that for the whole Aug. 8-10 weekend at Metrotech Center’s Polytechnic University in Brooklyn. One person was heard to remark, “When are we supposed to go eat? There’s no time for lunch – I’ll miss something good.”

You really had to hone your multitasking skills. I skipped out in the middle of a fine workshop on song parodies by Mike Agranoff and Joe Hickerson because I didn’t want to miss the English Music Hall featuring Roberts and Barrand, David Jones, Maggi Peirce and Heather Wood, deftly accompanied by Jerry Epstein on piano.

Thankfully, the concerts provided some relief from the usual dilemma. How nice to enjoy the pure voice of Jean Ritchie without that nagging feeling that you might be missing Margaret Bennett’s ballads from her native Hebrides, or Margaret MacArthur’s songs of Vermont, or Jeff Warner’s memorable ditties that he’s picked up all over the place in a lifetime of song collecting.

Unfortunately, the Copper Family were unable to appear as scheduled, owing to patriarch Bob Copper’s ill health. The time scheduled for their workshop on Saturday was given over to all and sundry singing the songs of this remarkable family from the English village of Rottingdean, in Sussex, many of which have become indelible parts of the traditional British canon.

Hats off to all those involved in producing this amazing weekend of traditional music, and let’s hope it happens again next year, with a fully recovered 89 year old Bob Copper.

—Mike Miller
Congratulations to DAVID and LORI HOLLAND who recently celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary. Lori writes:

“On August 23, 1953, David and I stood under the marriage canopy and were married by a rabbi in the Bronx. Our relationship had flourished with the folk revival. We met at a square dance and did some “courtin’” at the summer sings in Washington Square. Some of the people we met at that time are still good friends. It was fun to be young and love folk music at that time. We have never lost our interest in folk music, whatever that elusive thing is.

“Our son, Dan, heard bluegrass music at an early age and is a dynamic guitarist and mandolin player in the bluegrass style. We are very happy about that. We intend to keep on singing and exploring the music as long as we can.”

Congratulations to JANE BABBITS and TOBY FAGENSON who celebrated their 20th wedding anniversary in June with a trip to San Francisco. In addition to the San Francisco trip, Toby and Jane went to the Catskills in August where they attended a conference for songwriters called “Summersongs.”

During the summer, I encountered MOLLY MASON and JAY UNGAR. They say “hi” to the folks at Pinewoods. In May, Molly had brain surgery for a benign tumor at Columbia Presbyterian Hospital. She has made excellent progress in the recovery process. In fact, just five weeks after the surgery, she was performing again. Her doctor thought that this was remarkable. Molly says that it just goes to show that you can’t keep a musician down. She’s back to singing, playing instruments and writing tunes with Jay.

MEI MEI HAMMER has been very busy in her work as a psychoanalyst. She is running groups for people in the arts as well as groups for the elderly. Her daughter, MELANIE, is now an assistant D.A. in the District Attorney’s office in Queens.

If you have news to share, please contact me at 372 Central Park West, New York, NY 10025; 212-663-6309.

WIN-WIN Fund Raiser

You can help the Club AND acquire a wonderful book. It’s the book I first discovered through our departed Becky Berman -- "Triptych," an excellent photo collection by Milton Rogovin, as discussed in the review in the July/August issue. His current exhibit at the New York Historical Society continues through October 12 -- a fine exhibit!! -- but you might also like to acquire the very moving (and out of print) Triptych book before it disappears.

These luminous photos that follow the same families through the years are unforgettable! As I mentioned, Pete Seeger was also very touched, and again, here is the quote he provided: "Triptych! I never knew till now what this Latin word meant. This beautiful book, from the patriarch of a beautiful family in Buffalo, now defines it for us all. L’chaim!"

I do have some copies, and they are available for full list price, $40 (Well worth it!), with ALL the money going to the Club! If you’d like one, send me a request, to Sol Weber, 25-14 37 St, Astoria, NY 11103, with a check made out to the "Folk Music Society of NY, Inc." Include your mailing address. (Or perhaps we can touch base at a Club event.)

It all culminates in a new twist on Canadiana, setting Flapjack's music firmly in the North American old-time tradition. Flapjack regularly tours for shows, dances and festivals as a four-piece band, featuring vocals, twin fiddles, mandolin, guitar, clawhammer banjo, stand-up bass, washboard, bones, feet, jaw harp and harmonica.

Jay Edmunds and Karen Taylor front the band with original and traditional songs and tunes, from swinging ditties about Manitoulin Island to Ottawa Valley fiddle music. Teilhard Frost and Sam Allison provide strong vocal backup, percussion, harmonicas and acoustic bass.
