ED MILLER HOUSE CONCERT; Tuesday, February 22nd; 7:30pm

The next in Pinewoods’ series of house concerts will be held on Manhattan’s Upper Westside featuring Ed Miller, a native of Edinburgh, Scotland, now living in Austin, Texas. Ed, a product of the 1960s folk revival in Scotland, moved to the United States in 1968 to complete his graduate work in Geography, and later Folklore, at the University of Texas at Austin. He recently released his sixth CD, Generations of Change, and actively performs in festivals, workshops and clubs throughout the world. In addition to his singing career, Ed is the host of a folk music program on Austin’s NPR station, KUT-FM. According to reviewer Steve Winick, “Ed Miller is one of the best singers to emerge from the Scottish folk revival, a guitar-wielding folkie who wins his audiences over with a sweet but powerful voice, a great ear for material, and equal doses of populist politics and wry humor. Miller is also a scholar with a deep curiosity about history and culture, and his multiple roles and approaches to music and song make his performances and recordings that much more rewarding.” Please call 1-212-721-9382 for reservations and location details.

GOSPEL & SACRED HARP SING; Sunday, February 27th; 3pm

Join us for singing gospel, plus songs from the Sacred Harp book. This is 4-part harmony sung from written music, so you should be able to carry a tune; sight-singing helpful but not required. Subway: IRT 1,2, or 3 train to 72 St. or IND “C” train to 72 St, (longer walk). Other info: Isabel, 1-212-866-2029

Office Space Needed
The Club continues to look for more appropriate office space. We need space for a desk (with our computer and phone), file cabinet and 2 storage cabinets in a place that is accessible evenings, nights and weekends so our volunteers can get there after their “day” jobs. We also need access to an area that we can use 2 evenings a month for our board meetings (20 people) and our newsletter mailings. We’re looking for a Manhattan location with no cats; something shared with another nonprofit might be ideal. This is a continuing search; if you have any ideas, contact Don Wade, 1-718-426-8555 or e-mail <WadeD@ncc.edu>.

As I write this column, winter has finally arrived—it is 15 degrees outside and cold!! At least I have some things to look forward to. The Winter Weekend for one, and there is still space as I write this. Don’t hesitate! The music will keep you warm!

February also brings us the Sea Music Concert and an Ed Miller house concert. We also have our “Sings”—Riverdale, Chantey, Sacred Harp, and the Gospel & Sacred Harp Sing. With all this music, February will be a joyful month.

Please note that we have a new board—many old faces, (in terms of service only), and some new ones. Thank you to Alice Backer and Maggie Bye and Mark Maniak for serving on the board last year and for the years before. Welcome to Kate Myslinski, our newest board member. We still have some openings, and we could use your help. Even if you cannot serve on the board, contact us and let us know that you would like to help. There are committees and activities where your services would be very valuable. We depend on volunteers and we need you!! (Isn’t it nice to be wanted and needed?)

Thank you to the volunteers who help to put out the newsletter each month and ensure that you get the word about what’s going on in the club and at events throughout the city. They could always use more help. For the January Newsletter thank you to: Isabel Goldstein, Brenda Pena, Anne Price, Marcus Tieman, Heather Wood, and Don Wade who also delivered the pages from the printer. Won’t you join us on Tuesday, March 1st, and help mail out the next newsletter? (See page 3).

Ballot Count

A total of 130 ballots were received. Of these, 110 endorsed everyone on the slate; 20 voted “no” to some candidate or candidates.

The slate of candidates for the 2005 Board of Directors is therefore accepted.

Remember, if you voted against a particular candidate, you can always apply to join the board yourself and have your voice heard at meetings.

E-Mail?

Dear members: E-mail is a great way for us to get in touch with you, and for you to get in touch with us. Many of you have given us your e-mail addresses, but many have not. If you would like to be on the club’s e-mail address list, please send a message to nypinewood@aol.com. Also, if you think you gave us your e-mail address but you haven’t gotten any messages, maybe it was illegible or we got it wrong for some reason. If so, send it to us again on line. E-mail addresses of board members are also listed in this newsletter. Let us hear from you.
Congratulations to TOBY FAGENSON and JANE BABITS who tied the knot on June 26, 1983. This year they celebrated twenty-one years of marital bliss with a trip to Paris, Nice, Provence and Avignon.

ROSALIE FRIEND writes, "At the end of October, ALAN and I went to Oberlin College to visit our daughter, JULIA, who is now a senior. Last winter she agreed to serve on a committee to put on an Alumni Folk Conference. In June, the other committee members graduated and Julia wound up setting up the conference. The conference was suggested by Joe Hickerson and Fred Starner, two enthusiastic Oberlin alumni and featured them along with other alumni/performers such as Judy Cook, Mary LaMarca and George Stevens, Brad Lefwich and Eli Smith. Also participating was Peter Blood, editor of "Rise Up Singing." We enjoyed the good music and seeing friends (including Michael and Sharon Wildemuth, who drove three hours from Lima).

SHEILA EWALL enjoyed a trip to New England with Bliss Tours. Although it was not a folk music tour, the soundtrack of one of the videotapes viewed (about local botany) included banjos and dulcimers. That's Pinewoods style botany.

Can you picture ANN GREEN with a southern accent? She assumed one, as Maggie the cat, in a monologue from "Cat On A Hot Tin Roof" in a performance of scenes from well-known plays that took place at a senior center on Dec. 19th.

If you have news to share, contact me at 372 Central Park West, #15B, New York, NY 10025; 212-663-6309.

We Need Your Help!

The spaces we have been using for our Folk Off Broadway concerts will no longer be available to us on any regular basis. Now we are coming to you, our members, for help.

Do you work or live somewhere where there is an inexpensive room that we can use for small concerts? (Manhattan location preferred.) We would need access on Friday or Saturday evenings, or alternately Sunday afternoons. In a pinch, we would even consider Thursday evenings. We would need seating for 15-45 people. Ideally, we would have 6-7 small concerts per year.
