SARA GREY & KIERON MEANS; Thursday, June 16, 7:30 pm.

Sara Grey has been a respected performer of traditional music -- American, Canadian, English and Scottish -- for more than 40 years. Sara accompanies herself by frailing a five string banjo in the old-time clawhammer style and sings fine unaccompanied material as well. She always provides lots of choruses, so come prepared to sing. She has a very widespread repertoire, much of it direct from sources, including many songs that are otherwise unknown. As well as singing and playing, Sara is well known for her uproarious tale telling - specializing in stories from New England where she grew up, learning many stories from her father. Sara grew up in New Hampshire but has lived in North Carolina, Ohio, Montana, New York, Pennsylvania, Arizona, Wales, Scotland and England. As a youngster in North Carolina she developed a love for old time songs and banjo music, and she cites Kyle Creed as the chief influence on her understated, syncopated clawhammer banjo style.

Sara will be performing with her son, Kieron Means. Kieron has a strong voice and the ability to really move the listener. His guitar playing is interesting, unconventional, and highly effective on material from old-time blues to England and Scotland.

On May 22, in conjunction with her acting class at JASA, ANN GREEN presented a scene from "The Man Who Came To Dinner." For dessert she's planning some nice treats. In June she will travel to Cape Breton Island in Nova Scotia with Elder Hostel for workshops on nature and Scottish studies. Afterwards, she'll visit a friend in Toronto. Then it's off to Bulgaria with a folk dance group in July. Bon voyage.

SUSAN CONTENTO and MIKE O'MALLEY are delighted to let us all know that they will have two graduations this June. Their daughter, RIONA FAITH O'MALLEY, will be graduated from high school a year early. Fiona's next venture will be to study fashion design at Drexel University in Philadelphia. Their son, ROBERT O'MALLEY, will be graduated from middle school. In the fall, Robert will attend Leon Goldstein High School, located on the campus of Kingsborough College. Congratulations and best of luck, Riona and Robert.

Other high school graduates also include the son of Eileen Pentel and Don Wade, Willie Wade-Pentel, who will be attending U. Mass at Amherst in September, and the son of Marie Mularczyk and Rick O'Connell, Brian O'Connell, who will be attending NYU in September. I know that there are other graduates out there. Please let me know who they are for our next month's column.

SHEILA EWALL enjoyed a pleasant few days in Washington, D.C. She is proud of her nephew, EVAN, who is now working as a senior production manager at Big Interactive in Los Angeles and of her niece, MARNI, who is presently attending Hofstra Law School.

Tom Gibney
(19 October 1948 - 9 April 2005)

As mentioned briefly in the May newsletter, Tom left us after a battle with ocular melanoma. Throughout his illness, he never lost his unfailing cheerfulness, invariably responding to inquiries as to his condition with, "Groovy."

A superb singer of traditional songs, Tom was also a fine musician, whether on guitar, banjo, or fiddle, and a tasteful accompanist and harmonizer. Born of Irish parents (his mother's family, the O'Dowds of Sligo, boasted many fine musicians), Tom's real love was not for Irish music, but for the traditional music of the U.S. and Britain. Also Beethoven, early music, Scandinavian music. And more. He loved Sacred Harp, and attended many local conventions.

Tom's son Michael said at his memorial, "He was silly, and he was serious. He was self-effacing and he was self-assured. He was gentle and he was intense. The common thread tying his personality together is that he was himself, always. It is comforting to know that he will always be himself... as a part of our family, and as a part of all of our lives."

We extend our sympathy to Tom's wife Patti and his sons, David and Michael.

Cyril Tawney (1930-2005)

Sadly, English singer and songwriter Cyril Tawney passed away after a long illness on 21 April. Cyril had been singing folk songs for a living longer than anyone else in Britain (45 years as a full-time professional as of May 2004).

Born into a lower-deck Royal Naval family, Cyril joined the navy at 16 and served mainly in submarines. In early 1959 he became the only regular serviceman ever to have his own fully-networked TV programme.

Much of Cyril’s repertoire was traditional material, but in the late 1950s he began to write his own songs, many of which have become standards (“The Grey Funnel Line,” “Sammy’s Bar,” and the much-recorded “Sally Free and Easy” for instance). He is the only songwriter to have his work included in both The Oxford Book of English Traditional Verse and The Oxford Book of Sea Songs. He also worked on the collection and preservation of traditional songs originating in the wardrooms and messdecks of the 20th century Royal Navy, resulting in his unique book Grey Funnel Lines.

Cyril helped pioneer the British folk club movement in the 1960s. The role of The Shantyman in Peter Bellamy’s ballad opera The Transports was created especially for him. Cyril was a help and inspiration to many young singers, including myself. He was a warm, funny, and extremely talented person, who will be sorely missed. He is survived by his wife, Rosemary.

Details of Cyril’s recordings and books are on his website, http://pages.britishlibrary.net/tawney

Welcome to the month of June. Wonderful weather—but not the hot days of July and August. Wonderful music as well. The Sea Music Concerts on Tuesdays are in full swing and the Chantey Sing takes place as well. We are also pleased to bring you the Sara Grey & Kieron Means concert as well as the Sacred Harp Singing, and the Riverdale Sing on both June 23rd and July 2nd. Take note of the early July date events since the July/August Newsletter will be mailed out on July 7th.

June is a month of graduations. See Ruth Lipman's column.

We have sad news as well. See the Obits in this newsletter.

Thank you to the volunteers who help to put out the newsletter each month and ensure that you get the word about what’s going on in the club and at events throughout the city. They could always use more help. For the May Newsletter thank you to: Irene Anderson, Al Cadwallader, Isabel Goldstein, Mariann Perseo, Marcus Tieman, Tom Weir and Don Wade who also delivered the pages from the printer. Won’t you join us on Thursday, July 7th, and help mail out the next newsletter? (See p.3).

Office Space Needed

The Club continues to look for more appropriate office space. We need space for a desk (with our computer and phone), file cabinet and 2 storage cabinets in a place that is accessible evenings, nights and weekends so our volunteers can get there after their “day” jobs. We also need access to an area that we can use 2 evenings a month for our board meetings (20 people) and our newsletter mailings. We’re looking for a Manhattan location with no cats; something shared with another nonprofit might be ideal. This is a continuing search; if you have any ideas, contact Don Wade, 1-718-426-8555 or e-mail <WadeD@ncc.edu>.

Volunteers needed to attend the Falcon Ridge Festival, July 21 to July 24, 2005.

We have complimentary tickets, which include admission and camping. See their ad in this issue. In order to accept this offer, you must be willing to hand out the Folk Music Society of N.Y., Inc. material—newsletters, flyers, etc. Call Eileen Pentel at 718-672-6399 for more information.

Your membership expiration date is printed on your newsletter mailing label. If you send in your renewal before you expire, you will save wear and tear on Anne, our Membership Chair, and also save the club the cost of mailing you a reminder. Thank you.
Housing Needed

New York City Sacred Harp Singers are hosting an All-Day Singing on August 13, 2005 and we need friendly and hospitable friends to help put up people who will be coming in from out-of-town.

Because of our small apartments and astronomical hotel rates, housing for out-of-town singers will be one of our biggest challenges for this event.

If you can help, please call or email Inga Knets, knetsi@yahoo.com 1-347-866-6064, or Holly Laws, hlaws@wesleyan.edu; 917.538.5138

Folk Fone Help Wanted
