BRIAN PETERS; Friday, November 4th; 7:30 PM 😊
This is a don’t miss event! Brian Peters is both an exceptional musician and an expert in traditional music. He studies the history of a ballad or jig, then takes a simple tune and overlays complex harmony and driving rhythms to create something original and modern, but thoroughly grounded in the tradition. He is astounding on the button-box and when his playing is combined with his singing, the listener is transported to the time when a ballad was the MTV hit of the day.

DOUBLE TROUBLE HOUSE CONCERT; Friday, November 18th; 8 PM

Jean Farnworth and Evy Mayer were already solo performers when they started performing as “Double Trouble” in 1989. Evy sings and plays ukulele, guitar and various percussion instruments, and collects popular songs of the early 1900s, as well as humorous songs, World Music, singer/songwriter and children’s music. Jean sings and plays Celtic harp (32 strings, 45” tall) and 12-string guitars. Her repertoire includes Renaissance, traditional Celtic, vintage blues and original music. It is easy to see why, “What kind of music do you play?” can be a difficult question to answer! This duo will get everyone singing by inviting the audience to join in on choruses. “Lyrical and haunting on one song, rowdy and boisterous on the next, they handle their instruments with authority and project their voices with beauty and clarity.” “Twisted, yet sensitive; multi-cultural; extremely dangerous.” $10.00 members, $13.00 general public. At Mei-Mei Hammer’s, 7 W. 96th St. #3C (just off Central Park W.). Refreshments served. Reservations suggested: (718) 549-1344 (after 11 AM.)

SACRED HARP SINGING AT ST. BART’S; Sundays, Nov. 20th, Dec. 18th; 2:30pm

Beginners welcome! Books available for loan or purchase. Contributions collected; free parking available. Food and fellowship following. Info: Gail Harper 212-750-8977.

GOSPEL & SACRED HARP SING; Sunday, December 4th; 3pm

Bring food for a potluck supper (host is supplying drinks). At the home of Millicent Browne, 9902 3rd Ave, #6W, Bay Ridge, Brooklyn (178-491-4046). Subway: R train to 95th St (last stop), front end of train. Walk towards St. Patrick’s Church but do not cross 4th Ave. Continue on 4th Ave to 99 St. Turn right and walk to...
THE CLUB CELEBRATES 40 WONDERFUL YEARS; Saturday, Dec. 3rd; 5 PM

Who would have thought in 1965 that we would have such a celebration and be looking forward to many more great years of music and community?... And food -- including the spectacular pot-luck dessert table! Come join all your friends and extended family for a feast of great food, singing, reminiscing, and reveling in how much the Club continues to mean to us. At The Renaissance Charter School in Jackson Heights, Queens. The school is right there at the corner, of 37 Avenue and 81 Street, 35-59 81st Street. TRCS has the red door. The meters on 81st Street are 2 hours and end at 7 PM. (Be careful if you take a meter on 37th Avenue; some end at 7 PM and others end later). There is a parking garage on 82nd Street between 35 and 37 Ave, just before 37th Avenue. By train, take the # 7 to 82nd Street. From the Editor

We want to wish you a happy November and December. I mention both months because this is a double issue. Remember to save it for our upcoming and exciting events. Folk Music concerts include Brian Peters, Joe Hickerson + NY Packet, Double Trouble, and Mei-Mei Hammer. We will also have a Halloween Singing Party, Folk Open Sings, Community Sings, Chantey Sings, Gospel and Sacred Harp Sings, the Riverdale Sing and the Sunnyside Song Circle. As you can see, there will be lots to do. One of the special events you won’t want to miss is our 40th Anniversary Celebration on Dec 3rd—good food, good music, and old friends. Feel free to bring guests—both those who haven’t come for awhile and those who might like to join us. See the flyer on page 7 for details.

You will also be receiving in the mail a ballot for our board of directors. Please vote—even better, join the board. We still have vacancies; if you are interested in joining, contact Joy Bennett, 718-575-1906. If you can’t join the board, consider being on a committee to help the club continue to provide these wonderful events.

On a sad note, one of the founding members of the club, Jean Domovs, has passed away. See the obituary written by her husband Kelvin—another founding member. I hope it is some comfort to know that the club continues to sing and meet, 40 years later.

Thank you to the volunteers who help to put out the newsletter each month and ensure that you get the word about what’s going on in the club and at events throughout the city. They could always use more help. For the October newsletter thank you to, Herb Feuerlicht, Isabel Goldstein, Brenda Pena, Mariann Perseo, Anne Price, Marcus Tieman, and Don Wade who also delivered the pages from the printer. Won’t you join us on Wednesday, December 28, and help mail out the January newsletter? (See p.4).

Jean Domovs 1923-2005—Pinewoods Folk Music club founder.

I am sad to inform you that my wife Jean died of multiple myeloma cancer on last June 28.

As Jean Ashley Roobach, she was a founder of the Pinewoods Folk Music Club at CDS Folk Music Week in 1965. She served as Treasurer. Along with Bernie and Lottie Klayman, she ran the first Camp Freedman weekends. (As President, my only job was to see that others did all the work.)

Jean had been a pianist and recorder player, sang with the M.I.T. chorus in Cambridge, and studied violin briefly. She practiced piano seriously and thought of making a career of it. Although she preferred classical music, she especially liked Jack Langstaff, the Revels and, fortunately, some of my own singing. For about 60 years, Jean has been a member of the Country Dance & Song Society.

Jean loved art, plus crafts, which she used in much of her work as an occupational therapist. Seeing a need for a wheelchair commode seat for paraplegics, she invented and patented one. She taught over 30 crafts to patients and others. She graduated from the Boston School of O.T., Tufts U., and N.Y.U.

For about 50 years, Jean belonged to the Appalachian Mt. Club, and, at times, many other hiking and conservation (both natural and historical) organizations, and had been President of the Morris Nature Club. She was interested in biology as it related to her work, her art and her love of plants and animals, especially cats. Although she was an enthusiastic athlete, her favorite pastime may have been reading. She owned hundreds of books on history, art, etc., and actually read them!

Jean was President of the Morris County Historical Society, and founded the Council of Local Historical Societies. She learned that her Hubble ancestors were probably Normans serving William I, and that one was given land in Canada for serving King George III. Her Roobach ancestors fought for Presidents George and Abraham.

Jean chaired many committees at the Morristown Unitarian Fellowship. She was a life-long member of the First Parish of Cambridge, MA. To help people plan affordable funerals and relieve their families of financial and emotional burdens, Jean served for 14 years as President of the Memorial Society of North Central NJ, and organized the Council of NJ Memorial Societies. She donated her body for a better use, medical research and teaching. While personally very frugal, she was very generous with her time, money, energy and body.

After Jean moved to N.Y.C. to work and study at N.Y.U., I met her in 1965 at a C.D.S. English dance workshop in NJ. Long after we married six months later, I realized she was the same pretty, redhead I had danced with at the New England Folk Festival 13 years earlier!

Brian Peters is a traditional folk music performer who combines virtuosity on three different instruments with a great voice and an energetic stage presence. He’s a leading English squeezebox player, doubling on melodeon (button accordion) and Anglo concertina. Brian believes strongly in the power and relevance of the old songs and bases his set around them, but he’s no diehard, and covers the work of writers from Leon Rosselson to Lyle Lovett and Robin Williamson, as well as contributing songs of his own. He specializes in the great ballads of the British Isles and his versions of the Child ballads bring new life to those old tunes.

Office Space Needed
The Club continues to look for more appropriate office space. We need space for a desk (with our computer and phone), file cabinet and 2 storage cabinets in a place that is accessible evenings, nights and weekends so our volunteers can get there after their “day” jobs. We also need access to an area that we can use 2 evenings a month for our board meetings (20 people) and our newsletter mailings. We’re looking for a Manhattan location with no cats; something shared with another nonprofit might be ideal. This is a continuing search; if you have any ideas, contact Don Wade, 1-718-426-8555 or e-mail <WadeD@ncc.edu>.

Special Last Minute Offer: Anchiskhati Ensemble, 10/29

Club members are being offered half price tickets for the Anchiskhati Ensemble in concert at Saint Peter's Church 54th & Lexington, Saturday, October 29th, at 7:30 pm. Regular admission is $25 at the door; club members are half-price (Students/Seniors,$12). For tickets or information contact Longan618@aol.com.

The traditional vocal music of Georgia (the country not the state) with its mind-bending harmonics has been declared by the UNESCO to be "one of the intangible spiritual treasures of humanity." Rowdy drinking songs, war chants and love songs contrast with hymns of breathtaking spirituality. Anchiskhati is the real thing, an authentic folk group touring the US for the first time from Tblisi, Georgia.
