Nov. 7: Ken Schatz has been a part of the New York City and Washington, DC chantey scenes for all his life. He clapped onto these songs at a very young age and sings them with great verve and passion. He has appeared at many festivals and folk clubs in North America and abroad. It’s a rare opportunity to hear him in his homeport – you will be tapping your feet and singing along every step of the way

Their 4th Seaport Museum appearance, this is a can't-be-missed afternoon. NYU's Celtic music ensemble, the WSHSO’s music is absolutely crisp and contagious.

Old-Time Jamming Workshop & Jam
Sun., Nov. 14, 2:30 – 4:30 PM, Park Slope, Bklyn

Advance Registration Required
Workshop Leaders: Bill Christophersen – fiddle; Alan Friend – banjo.

Back by popular demand, this hands-on workshop is for banjo-players, fiddlers, guitarists, etc who are less experienced playing Southern old-time music. It includes: roles of different instruments (melody or backup), what to do for a tune you don’t know, what to listen for (tempo, chord changes, etc.). Standard old-time tunes will be played in keys of G, D, and A, starting slowly and playing up to speed as participants become comfortable with the tune. Less common tunes may be introduced as well.

Veteran fiddler of countless bands, Bill Christophersen's influences include Tommy Jarrell, Arthur Smith, Buddy Thomas and Ernest East. He currently fiddles with the Manhattan Valley Ramblers and Rock House Gamblers. His latest solo recording is “Hell and High Water.”

Alan Friend has played old-time clawhammer and finger-style banjo for over 30 years. He is a contributing writer for the Banjo Newsletter, with several tunes he plays posted on its website. Alan has played in a number of bands, currently as the Chelsea String Band’s banjoist. Alan’s recording, “Had a Dog,” was selected as a “top pick” by CDBaby when it first came out.

Register in advance by Nov. 8th by sending a check for $12 (Club members) or $15 (non-members) made out to ‘FMSNY,’ with your phone number & email address to Alan Friend, Education Chair, 440 Fifth STREET, (NOT AVENUE), Brooklyn, NY 11215. For questions, call Alan at 718-965-4074.

Bertie and Joy Held are teaching a class at the 92nd Street Y (in the “60+” program). The course is called “Awake and Zing.” It is about Yiddish songs and the stories behind them. In July, Joy went to Indianapolis to attend her grandnephew’s bar mitzvah and her 50th high school reunion. It was a wonderful visit.

Welcome to the world, Benjamin Brownson (born September 30th). His parents are James and Naomi (Jankowitz) Brownson and his completely thrilled grandma is Joanne Davis.

Also a warm welcome to Clive River who was born on October 4th. His delighted grandparents are Bernie Goldschmidt and Toni Field. Clive is their 4th grandchild, but who’s counting? Laura Goldschmidt continues to thrive in sunny Arizona.

In October, Anne Price had a lovely visit from her sister, Susan. Susan lives in Arizona and is a belly dancer. ...There must be something about Arizona.

Eileen Pentel is doing a lot of knitting.

Don't be Bored, Join the Board

In December, we'll be sending out the ballots to elect next year's board.

The Society's all-volunteer Board of Directors is the hard-working group that plans and keeps the whole operation running: newsletter, membership, outreach, publicity, finance, education, program, etc. (There's a LOT of etc.!) Every board member is expected to serve on one of the committees (see list above) and to attend our 11 meetings a year (second Monday of each month except August). But it's not just talk. Board members do essential jobs at concerts (take money at the door, sell performer products); attend events that we co-sponsor; hand out fliers at every available opportunity; handle all aspects of publicity; publish the newsletter; update the website; plan concerts, workshops, and so forth.

If you'd like to join us, send or e-mail the editor (see p. 6) a brief blurb for addition to the ballot (your "campaign platform"). Don't be shy about mentioning useful skills! Should you wish to know more about what's involved, talk to any current board member.

Medieval Festival (October 3) Report.

We thank all the volunteers who sang and gave out Pinewoods fliers and newsletters. This festival requires medieval costumes, and all the participants were gloriously attired in exotic clothing. Mark Hamburgh suggested that we participate and made all the arrangements. He helped set up and take down our booth, and tirelessly handed out fliers. Don Wade and Eileen Pentel brought all the equipment and materials, helped set up the booth, and collated and distributed fliers. Rosalie Friend coordinated the undertaking and also gave out fliers. The siren songs of Jerry Epstein, Heather Wood, Alan Friend, Ann Price, Robert Rodriguez, Bob Rosensweet, Charlotte Nugent, and Alan Marsh with the Solstice Singers, drew people to our booth. Thanks also to Marilyn Suffet for donating fabric and some costume parts.

I think we all enjoyed the festival despite the cold.

Folk Music Events Calendar -- Should we drop it?:

Given the ever increasing costs of printing, we are looking at all sections of the newsletter with the idea of saving money -- and the Events Calendar and listings take up more pages than any other section. There is serious consideration to no longer printing these sections (as has been done by some of our sister organizations). If you have an opinion to keep these sections, drop the sections, or even think it really doesn't matter, let us know. Write to the editor (address on page 6) or send e-mail to: <events@folkmusicny.org>.
