The Tres Amigos: Friday, October 19th; 8pm ☺

The Tres Amigos present high-energy original music and forgotten gems in bold, acrobatic performances. Behind those matching mariachi shirts are virtuosic musicians and songwriters, delivering the goods in sunny three-part harmony with the vibe of your uncle's old '45's. See their website (http://thetresamigos.net ) for more info. This concert is part of Daniel Pearl World Music Days (http://www.danielpearlmusicdays.org).

Hailing from the rolling hills of North Carolina, vocalist/guitarist Justin Poindexter is the descendent of a long line of southern storytellers. His songs and guitar pickin' have been featured in award-winning films and albums, and in hundreds of venues from Georgia roadhouses to Lincoln Center in New York City. Justin is the recipient of numerous grants for his music research and composition, including grants from the Semans' Art Fund and the Howard Hanson Institute for American Music.

Vocalist/accordionist Sam Reider is to The Tres Amigos what the green chile is to the tamale. His wild and constantly surprising playing has lit up stages all across the country. Raised in the musical hotbed of San Francisco, Sam's voice and keyboard stylings have been featured on Marian McPartland's Piano Jazz on National Public Radio and in a variety of touring bands and orchestras.

saxophonist, and percussionist Eddie Ray Barbash is the virtuosic fuel of The Tres Amigos machine. From the Editor

October is a busy month for us. This is the month when we take part in the Daniel Pearl World Music Days, which was created in response to the 2002 kidnapping and murder of Wall Street Journal reporter Daniel Pearl at the hands of extremists in Karachi, Pakistan. Danny's family and friends came together to work towards a more humane world, forming the Daniel Pearl Foundation, whose mission is to promote cross-cultural understanding through journalism, music, and dialogue. The Tres Amigos, an exciting and talented group, is our contribution to this world wide festival.

The Irish Traditional Music Sessions continues, as well as the Old-time Instrumental

The Folk Music Society of New York, Inc./NY Pinewoods Folk Music Club was started in 1965 and is a 501 (c)(3) non-profit, educational corporation; an affiliate of the Country Dance & Song Society of America. A copy of our annual report is available from our office at 444 W. 54th St., #7, NYC, NY 10019 or from the Office of Charities Registration, N.Y. Dept. of State, 162 Washington Av, Albany, NY 12232.

The Society is run entirely by volunteers with a Board of Directors elected by the membership. The working officers below (members of and elected by the board) welcome your help and suggestions.

Memberships are listed on the back page; regular memberships help support the society and include one subscription to the newsletter (10-11 issues yearly) and reduced admissions. Won’t you join us?
