The PMN Winter Gathering begins Friday at 6:30 PM with a potluck dinner followed by a sing-along led by Magpie and others at Saint John's Lutheran Church at 83 Christopher Street in Greenwich Village. Friday night admission is free.

The Winter Gathering continues at the Renaissance Charter School at 35-59 81st Street in Jackson Heights on Saturday from 8:00 AM to 11:30 PM, and Sunday from 8:30 AM to 2:00 PM. There will be song swaps, teaching workshops, presentations, discussions, mini-concerts, a round robin open mic, Sunday morning Songs of the Spirit, a children's concert, and more. Three meals on Saturday and two on Sunday are included with the cost of registration. For complete information please visit the website www.peoplesmusic.org or call Diane Crowe at 413-548-9394.

Newsletter Mailing: Thursday, January 30th; 7pm

New Boys of Old New York: Friday, January 31st; 8pm

Red-hot strings ignite an old Long Island fiddle tune; oversized mandolins weave together on a rare Irish song from the Adirondacks; spoons and hambone bring Western NY dance tunes leaping back to life; two lone voices belt out a Catskill lumbercamp song in haunting unison.

Jeff Davis and Dave Ruch present New York State traditional music with a unique flair as The New Boys of Old New York. Davis is well-known for his authoritative interpretation of American traditional music (“worth a lot of salt” – SingOut!), and Ruch for his deep research and great sense of fun on stage (“Mighty. The audience loved it” – Mick Moloney).

Together “The New Boys” delight in exploring the unusual and under-appreciated. With a pile of fascinating stories and two carriage-loads of instruments, the music of New York’s canallers, Great Lakes sailors, African-American fiddlers, Irish lumberjacks, and hill-country homemakers is in great new hands. At Saint John's Lutheran Church, 81 Christopher Street, NYC 10014; Subway: Christopher Street on the #1, West 4th Street on others. Suggested donation: $22, members $18. tickets at the door or on-line at: http://newboys.bpt.me (service fee applies). Information 212-957-8386

From the President

A big thank you to all the Board members who do the work that keeps this organization going. Also, a round of applause to all the musicians who make our weekends and concerts so great, the volunteers who help mail the newsletter, keep the newsletter listings current, run the silent auctions at our weekends, and do all the other jobs our club needs. Special thanks to Marilyn Suffet for her baked goodies at concerts and for being our Recording Secretary.

Here’s something one of our long-time members can boast about. Heather Wood’s former group, The Young Tradition, just won for Album of the Year in the Reissues and Compilations of 2013 category of fRoots Critics Poll. The album is “Oberlin 1968.” Go to: http://www.frootsmag.com/content/critpoll/ to read more.

One of my favorite shows on Broadway this season is "A Gentleman's Guide to Love and Murder." Charles Isherwood describes it best in the NY Times: Inspired by a little-known British novel (the same one behind the movie "Kind Hearts and Coronets"), it breathes billowing new life into the comic operetta form, relaying the story of a distant heir to a fortune (Bryce Pinkham) who murders his way through a pack of snotty, dotty and otherwise absurd relatives to win the gold, and the girl. All his victims are played, in the year's greatest musical-theater performance by the dazzling Jefferson Mays." Go see it.

Finally there’s the recently released Cohen Brothers film, “Inside Llewyn Davis.” Slate’s Jack Hamilton says, “The film follows a week in the life of a young folk singer as he navigates the Greenwich Village folk scene of 1961, and in doing so, "breathes renewed and important life into the early 1960s folk revival.” Llewyn Davis is "impeccably played by Oscar Isaac," he writes. "And the film’s performance sequences are luxurious and fully real." I thought the movie was interesting, and Oscar Isaac’s performance (and that of the other musicians) excellent, but ultimately too depressing. You decide, after you’ve gone to see it.

Wishing you all a Happy and Healthy New Year, and thanks to you, our members, for your support. Hope to see you at our concerts, weekends, and workshops in the coming year (especially the Winter Weekend which is my favorite.)

Evy Mayer, President

Weekend Help Wanted

Full and Partial stipends are available in exchange for administrative work done on our folk music weekends. Contact the Club President, Evy Mayer, president(at)folkmusicny.org; 718-549-1344 (after 11 am) if you are interested in any of the jobs for the coming Winter Weekend.

Weekend Chair.: A management job with responsibility for the performance of all of the other jobs. On the weekend is the club’s contact with the manager of the facility we are using. (half scholarship)

Transportation: Tries to find rides to and from camp for all who need them. Gets and gives out info on public transportation if needed. (full scholarship)
I hope your holidays were good ones. Last month, we had lots of music, including workshops, house concerts, our trip to the Regal Heights Rehab Center, which was very rewarding, and more. Next month we will report on the new board (the deadline to vote was after this issue was sent to the printer).

This January, we have our usual Folk Open Sing, Old-Time music jam, Shanty Sing, a Chantey Blast Pub Sing and, of course, our newsletter mailing. The special treats for this month include the Zlatne Uste Golden Festival and the People’s Music Network Winter Gathering. We are co-sponsoring both events. The New Boys of Old New York are also coming to town. They are Dave Ruch and Jeff Davis. You don’t want to miss our January events.

Coming up is our winter weekend. It’s time to make reservations. Remember, we also have scholarships available. If you could use some help, please don’t be shy. People who apply for the scholarships often ask for partial ones, since they can afford part but not all of the cost. It helps to spread the scholarships around, and we are the lucky ones, since more people come to make music. Of course, if you need a full scholarship don’t hesitate to ask for one. This is the weekend with no program—the music is made by us!

Thank you to the volunteers who help us get out the newsletter, Lynn Cole, Isabel Goldstein, Fran Levine, Eileen Pentel, Marilyn Suffet, Marcus Tieman, and Don Wade. The next mailing will be on Thursday, January 30th. Come and join us sometime! See page 3.

Weekend Scholarships Available

Applications are now being accepted to the Winter weekend for the George Parker Scholarship and the Mayer Scholarship. These funds provide either full or partial scholarships to individuals who could not otherwise attend and who have a strong interest in folk music, singing, and/or instrumental playing.

TO APPLY: Please download an application from the website www.folkmusicny.org or request an application form from the address below. The most important considerations are financial need and interest in folk music. The candidates will be considered and notified by mail.

Please send it in before January 7 to:
Marilyn Suffet, 41-05 47th Street, Sunnyside, NY 11104.
Phone: 718-786-1533; E-mail: ssuffet@nyc.rr.com

There are 2 scholarship funds set up for this weekend:

George Parker Scholarship - provides scholarships for each weekend to a club member otherwise unable to attend. The fund was established in memoriam by George’s parents, the New York Pinewoods Folk Music Club, and other contributors. George was a young man and a friend of folk music who greatly enjoyed our weekends.

Charles & Ilse Mayer Scholarship Fund - provides scholarships for each weekend each year. This fund was set up in memoriam by board member Evy and Ilse Mayer in honor of Evy’s father Charles Mayer.

You may make a fully tax-deductible contribution in any amount to any of the funds above by sending a check payable to “Folk Music Society of New York” (noted with the name of the scholarship memorial) to our treasurer, Heather Wood, 444 W. 54th St, #7, NYC, NY 10019. To establish a new named fund in honor of or in memoriam to a loved one, please contact any of our current board members (see list in this newsletter)
Steve Suffet was interviewed by Ross Macfadyen of Scotland's Celtic Music Radio (Glasgow 1530 AM) when Steve and his wife Marilyn were in the UK this past fall. That interview was made into an hour-long program broadcast on November 16th.

On a sad note, Sheila’s Ewall’s cousin, Harvey Birch, passed away on 8/18/13. He was 70 years old. The club extends sincere condolences to Sheila and her family. Sheila has good news too. Her niece, Marni Schlessinger-Leitert, gave birth to a baby in November. His name is Ryan Matthew and he weighed 8 pounds, 12 ounces at birth. So Sheila is now a great-aunt.

In mid-November, Don Wade, Eileen Pentel and Rita and Mark Hamburgh attended a weekend of superb square dancing at the John C. Campbell Folk School in Brasstown, NC. On the multi-day trip down, they stopped in Shenandoah National Park and Mount Airy, NC, which is suffused with a Mayberry theme because it is Andy Griffith’s hometown. Of course, Eileen had to stop at the knitting store in Mt Airy--"What's Needlin' Ewe".

Also two of the dancers in the square dance class have a knitting store near to Brasstown, "Yarn Circle," and opened the store on Sunday for Eileen and other participants on the way home. To be fair, however, when the travellers got off the road for a chocolate store in Dillsboro, NC, Eileen did pass by the knitting store there.

Mark and Rita Hamburgh’s son, Jeremy, got married at the end of the summer in Los Angeles. Jeremy and his wife, Lisa (a native of Southern California), reside in Manhattan. Rita, the longtime senior director of Rehabilitation Therapies at New York Presbyterian Hospital, received a Hospital award for outstanding leadership.

If you have news to share, please contact me at 372 Central Park West, #15B, New York, NY 10025; 212-663-6309; ruthlipman (at) msn.com.
