Marxophone & Beyond: Performance-Talk with Katherine Rhoda; Sunday, September 14th; 2pm

Explore the whimsical world of play-by-numbers vintage musical instruments, some ridiculous, some sublime. Among them are the Marxophone, tremoloa, ukelin, violin-guitar, Apollo harp, dolceola,ophonoharp, harmolin, celestaphone, and more. Spawned by mass manufacturing, these instruments were sold door-to-door and through mail order catalogs as the ultimate in do-it-yourself music making. Folksinger Katherine Rhoda hails from rural Maine, where she grew up steeped in community and church music. She got her first ukelin in the late 1970s, soon followed by her first Marxophone, and she has since become the foremost authority on these instruments. At the home of John Ziv & Deborah Rubin, 243 West 98th Street, Apt. 6A (just west of Broadway), New York, NY 10025. The doorbell code is 22 plus the little bell symbol on the bottom right of the intercom panel. Do not press the bell symbol on the panel about two-thirds of the way up on the right hand side. If you’ve done it correctly, there will be a bright light and you will hear the bell. If it doesn’t work, please call 212-662-6575 and someone will come down. Seating limited. Reservations strongly recommended. For information and reservations please e-mail steve@stevesuffet.com or call Steve Suffet at 718-786-1533. General admission $12. We hope your Summer was a good one. This Fall should be lots of fun. I think that the “Talk Like a Pirate Extravaganza” will be one of my favorites! Of course, we have many other exciting events. We are co-sponsoring with the Sunnyside Singers Club and Sean Tyrrell will be the featured performer this month, with everyone getting a chance to sing. Don’t forget to enjoy our Folk Open Sing, a singing/playing party celebrating our own Dr. Ruth, a Shanty Sing and the Old-Time Music Jams.

Special 2014 Fall Weekend Offer

The board has voted to offer a $100 credit towards the Fall weekend if you did not attend all of the last three weekends (Nov. 2013, Feb. & May 2014). In other words, you have not attended ANY weekend in the past year.

The first 15 individual applicants will each receive a "welcome" credit number – contact Heather Wood, 212-957-8386 or e-mail HWood50(at)aol.com. Apply ASAP – deadline is 28 September for this offer.

When you send in your weekend registration, write your credit number(s) on the form and deduct $100 from the total for each number.

Weekend Scholarships Available

Applications are now being accepted to the Fall weekend for the George Parker Scholarship and the Mayer Scholarship. These funds provide either full or partial scholarships to individuals who could not otherwise attend and who have a strong interest in folk music, singing, and/or instrumental playing.

TO APPLY: Please see the application form on the next page, download one from the website www.folkmusicny.org, or request an application form from the address below. The most important considerations are financial need and interest in folk music. The candidates will be considered and notified by mail.

Please send it in, via mail or e-mail, before October 5th to:
Marilyn Suffet, Phone: 718-786-1533; E-mail: ssuffet@nyc.rr.com
41-05 47th Street, Sunnyside, NY 11104.

In an effort to make our weekends available to more members there are now several scholarship funds set up:

George Parker Scholarship - provides one full scholarship per fall or spring weekend to a club member otherwise unable to attend. The fund was established in memoriam by George’s parents, the New York Pinewoods Folk Music Club, and other contributors. George was a young man and a friend of folk music who greatly enjoyed our weekends.

Charles & Ilse Mayer Scholarship Fund - provides one full scholarship for each of the fall, winter, and spring weekends each year. This fund was set up in memoriam by board member Evy and Ilse Mayer in honor of Evy’s father Charles Mayer.

You may make a fully tax-deductible contribution in any amount to any of the funds above by sending a check payable to “Folk Music Society of New York” (noted with the name of the scholarship memorial) to our treasurer, Heather Wood, 444 W. 54th St, #7, NYC, NY 10019. To establish a new named fund in honor of, or in memoriam to, a loved one please contact any of our current board members (see list on page 17).

Here is some great news from Bernie Stolls. “Proud Papa Department”: Bernie Stolls' daughter, Amy, is now Director of Literature for the National Endowment for the Arts. Congratulations Amy!

Heather Wood writes, “Club member Chris Koldewey is sailing with the Charles W. Morgan on her historic 38th voyage (see http://www.mysticseaport.org/38thvoyage/). Chris became the first person to lead a shanty on the Morgan since her last outing in 1920.” Bon voyage, Chris.

Works by Laura Schechter were part of a group exhibition held at the George Billis Gallery from June 24 to July 19, 2014. For more information about this fascinating event, go to http://www.georgebillis.com/between-the-boroughs-group-exhibition.html

On June 18, 2014 Ann Kronenberg, who is an artist-in-residence at Macy’s Creative Arts Center of the Carter Burden Leonard Covello Senior Program, held a unique paper-making workshop. She began with a brief history of paper-making. After demonstrating how to create a 5 foot x 3 foot sheet of multicolor marbleized decorative paper (with assistance from members of the audience), participants worked together to make more beautiful, huge sheets of paper. This process involved pouring pulp, decorating, and pressing the sheets using their collective bodyweight. What a workout! For press coverage of this colorful event, go to the following link: http://manhattantimesnews.com/make-it-paper-hacerlo-papel/

The scope of Ann’s work extends to the use of a variety of materials and techniques. In addition, she combines her background in science with her artistic endeavors. To see a video entitled “Ann Kronenberg: The Scientific Artist,” go to http://thegrandassembly.com/ann

I would like to thank Rosalie and Alan Friend for graciously planning to hold a club singing party to help me celebrate my Ph.D. (I recently graduated from CUNY). The party will be on September 7th. Details are in the “Events” listings.

If you have news to share, please contact me at 372 Central Park West, #15B, New York, NY 10025; 212-663-6309; ruthlipman@msn.com

Fall Weekend Oct.31-Nov.2; Register now!
Laughter and Music are the Best Medicines--
a singing party for Irving Glazer

On 5/18/14, several members, including his son, gathered at the Fairfield Nursing Home for a singing party for Irving Glazer. Irving is 94 years old and long time FMSNY member who is seriously debilitated. Prior to the event, Irving's son, Mark, warned us that, in all likelihood, Irving would fall asleep within ten minutes.

Contrary to expectations, he was awake and alert for the better part of two hours. He smiled often, mouthed some of the words, and read a card signed by those present repeatedly. Irving also received a folder with good wishes from a number of people who could not make it. He thoroughly enjoyed the accordion accompaniment provided by Paul Stein.

Irving's review of the event was his statement--- "This was the best time I've had in this house (referring to the facility)!" His son exclaimed with an expression of wonder, "This was amazing!"

In the picture are the people who were able to attend: kneeling are Betsy Mayer and Heather Wood; next row are Charlie Urich, Paul Stein, Mark Glazer (Irving's son), Irving. Top Row are Stu Shapiro, Eileen Pentel, Sheila Ewall, Judy Polish and Mark Banach.

The Folk Music Society of New York, Inc./NY Pinewoods Folk Music Club was started in 1965 and is a 501(c)(3) non-profit, educational corporation; an affiliate of the Country Dance & Song Society of America. A copy of our annual report is available from our office at 444 W. 54th St., #7, NYC, NY 10019 or from the Office of Charities Registration, N.Y. Dept. of State, 162 Washington Av, Albany, NY 12232.

We have approximately 400 members and run concerts, week-ends, classes, and get-togethers, all with an emphasis on traditional music. The Society is run entirely by volunteers with a Board of Directors elected by the membership. The working officers below (members of and elected by the board) welcome your help and suggestions.

Memberships are listed on the back page; regular memberships help support the society and include one subscription to the newsletter (10-11 issues yearly) and reduced admissions. Won’t you join us?
