Utah Phillips Papers

Bruce Duncan "Utah" Phillips (1935-2008) was one of the most prominent members of the American folk community in the latter half of the 20th century. He became well known as a folk singer, storyteller, poet, radio host, and activist beginning in the late 1960s and continued to be a distinguished figure in the folk and labor communities for the following four decades. The Walter P. Reuther Library, <http://reuther.wayne.edu/node/12330>, the repository for the Utah Phillips Papers, is pleased to announce that the collection is now open for research.

Hal Wylie Dies

On September 20th, we lost a dear friend and the community of folk song lovers lost a fine voice. Hal Wylie had for decades been with the bluegrass band, “Roger Sprung, Hal Wylie and the Progressive Bluegrassers”. He was lead singer and guitarist for Roger Sprung, a bluegrass banjoist of note.

Hal had a fine baritone with a wide range. In addition to bluegrass music, he sang traditional American and British ballads, lyric songs and gospel. He can be heard on Roger’s prolific collection of CDs. Hal was always good company with his unique ideas and intelligent conversation.

He will be missed for both his singing and his friendship. He leaves behind his beloved wife Winnie and many loving friends.

Please keep your details current
Have you changed your home or email address?

We send occasional emails to our members about events etc., especially things that crop up between newsletters. If we don’t have your correct email address, you won’t get these emails.

You can check your details. Go to our home page, www.folkmusicny.org, click on Membership/Benefits, then, in Online Membership information, click on the link to www.fsgw.org/nypfmc. Log in using your last name and membership number (it is on your newsletter mailing label). Click on Directory and enter your name. This will tell you what info we have for you. If the information is wrong, you can correct it yourself or add your cellphone, your website, etc., by clicking on My Profile, or you can email changes to Tom Weir, our Membership Chair: membership(at)folkmusicny.org.

The Directory button also allows you to find the contact information for any of our members.
